

An Act to amend the Canada Temperance Act.

HIS Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The subsection substituted for subsection 4 of section 99 of The Canada Temperance Act (hereinafter called the principal Act) by section 5 of chapter 34 of the statutes of 1888 (hereinafter called the amending Act) is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—
- “4. Provided also that the sale of intoxicating liquor for exclusively medicinal purposes or for bona fide use in some art, trade or manufacture may be made by any person duly authorized to sell it; but such liquor when sold for medicinal purposes shall not exceed in quantity ten ounces at any one time and shall be removed from the premises, and such sale shall be made only on the certificate of a medical man having no interest in the sale, affirming, that the liquor has been prescribed for the person named therein; and when such sale is for its use in some art, trade or manufacture, it shall be made only on a certificate signed by two justices of the peace of the good faith of the applicant, accompanied by the affirmation of the applicant that the liquor is to be used only for the particular purposes set forth in the affirmation; and such vendor shall file all such certificates and shall record every such sale in a book kept for that purpose, giving the name and address of the purchaser, the quantity of liquor or alcohol so sold, the name and address of the medical man prescribing it and of the person for whom it is prescribed, and of the parties whose names are appended to the certificate above referred to, and of the purpose for which the liquor or alcohol is prescribed; and the said file and book shall be kept for inspection by the inspector for the county, municipality, city or town, at all convenient times, and the vendor shall make an annual return of all such sales on the thirty-first day of December to the collector of Inland Revenue within whose division the county or city is situated; and any medical man who gives such a certificate for any other than strictly medicinal purposes, shall for the first offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty of forty dollars. Provided that section 119 of this Act, taking away an appeal, shall not apply to any such conviction of any medical man.”
2. Section 100 of the principal Act is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—
- “100. Everyone who, by himself, his clerk, servant or agent, exposes or keeps for sale, or directly, or indirectly, on any
