British Pilot Brought Down German Machine and Set It Afire.

LONDON. Nov. 18.—A report receiv-d from Field Marshal Sir John French, the British commander-in-chief in Trance and made public tonight, says:
"The hostile artillery continues active east and northeast of Ypres. "A successful enterprise was carried out by a small party of our troops the night of November 16-17 with a loss of one man killed and one wounded, just north of the River Douave, southwest of Messines. They forced an entrance to the enemy's front trench after beyoneting thirty of the occupants. The party returned with the loss of one man killed and one slightly wounded, and bringing with them 12 German prisoners. This is the incident which the enemy reports as the repulse of a surprise attack on the Messines-Ar-

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Lieut. Henri Koch, one of the officers of the interned German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who violated his parole and left Norfolk in the middle of October, has been taken off a Danish steamer in the North Sea by the British naval authorities. Lieut. Koch, who was sailing as a seaman, joined the steamer at Baltimore, giving his nationality as Dutch.

The lieutenant was captured on board a Danish steamer, which was searched in the North Sea early in the week. He was found among the crew and identified by an official who knew him before the outbreak of the war.
