Saskatchewan.

On Monday last and for several days afterwards, says the Battleford Herald of January 23, water was running on the ice on the Saskatchewan river.
There were twenty-two tenders put in for the supply of four hundred cords of dry wood asked for by the mounted police at Battleford. Prices ranged from $2.69 to $3.75.
On Monday, says the Prince Albert Saskatchewan of January 22, a regular Chinook wind blew all day and the snow thawed very rapidly. This is the first time in a number of years that we have had such a thaw in January.
Fish and deer meat have been brought into Prince Albert in large quantities during the past few days, says the Saskatchewan. There is talk of some parties going extensively into the export of fish.
