

WARD, LOCK & CO.'S POPULAR FICTION

HAROLD BINDLOSS

THE LIBERATIONIST. 6s.

MORNING LEADER.—"This is the author's best novel, and is one which no lover of healthy excitement ought to miss."

HAWTREY'S DEPUTY. 6s.

THE SCOTSMAN.—"Mr. Bindloss's new novel has everything to recommend it; a love story, sensible and wholesome; a well-handled and strong interest of travel and adventure in strange scenes; good craftsmanship in literature, and in the quiet, vigorous handling of imaginative effect. A healthy, pleasant book that deserves to be widely read."

THE IMPOSTOR 6s.

HEADON HILL

A ROGUE IN AMBUSH. 6s.

An engrossing and powerful yarn.

THE HIDDEN VICTIM. 6s.

THE ABERDEEN JOURNAL.—"To those who revel in sensational fiction, marked by literary skill as well as audacity and fertility of invention, this story can be confidently commended."

RADFORD SHONE. 6s.

THE DUNDEE ADVERTISER.—"I recall 'The Hidden Victim' as one of the best of Mr. Hill's books, and alongside it I shall now put 'Radford Shone.'"

HER SPLENDID SIN. 6s.

PERTSHIRE COURIER.—"Headon Hill gives us good reading with plenty of thrilling incident. He has never told an intensely absorbing story with more dramatic directness than this one."

A TRAITOR'S WOOING. 6s.

DUNDEE ADVERTISER.—"Its plot has the freeness and force of a single inspiration, and that a peculiarly happy one."

FOES OF JUSTICE. 6s.

DUBLIN DAILY EXPRESS.—"The captivated reader simply must follow the exciting careers of the various characters to the bitter, or the joyous, end."

J. C. SNAITH

PIERCEHEART, THE SOLDIER. 6s.

THE SPEAKER.—"There is real subtlety in this powerful study. The novel is crammed full of the finest romance and most heart-moving pathos."

MISTRESS DOROTHY MARVIN. 6s.

THE NOTTINGHAM GUARDIAN.—"Mr. Snaith stirs the blood, or rather, keeps stirring the blood from the first page to the last, carrying the reader along in a delightful state of excitement and amusement, and all the characters live, move, and have their being."

LADY BARBARITY. 6s.

BLACK AND WHITE says:—" 'Lady Barbarity' would cheer a pessimist in a November fog. It is so gay, so good humoured, so full of the influence of youth and beauty, that he must be a dull dog who finds no enjoyment in the reading of it."
