

In the Straits of Fuca.

Hunting at Shawnigan Lake.

already under cultivation and much more remain to be opened up. All these important industries are tributary to Victoria, the head office of most of the collieries and railways and mining and lumber interests being established there. The very beautiful scenery along the E. & N. Railway attracts many excursionists from Victoria. Sportsmen in quest of game and fish drop off at different places all along the line for miles, and this is in season one of the favorite Saturday afternoon recreations. The steeplechase track at Colwood is distant eight miles.

The Sportsman.