Misses' Fall Suits Attractively Priced

Excellent tailoring, simplicity of design, and such favorite materials as cheviot, velour, velvet and serge, make these suits tempting.

For instance, one of soft beaver brown burella has the back laid in a double box-pleat centred by dull bone buttons. Stitchings and tailored pockets add chic. $34.75.

A mannish tailored suit with long "riding coat" is jauntily finished with braid bindings and buttons. Oxford grey cheviot, or navy and black gabardine. Price, $42.50.

Velvet, in a host of rich shades, fashions lovely models with pleated and rippled coats, dressy convertible collars and chic girdles. Price, $34.75.

New Styles in Misses' Fall Skirts

Street and dressy modes to satisfy every taste. Developed in satins, taffetas, novelty silks, plaid wool velours, gabardines and serges. Lovely color combinations, also navy and black. Accordeon pleating, fringed panels, the broadest of girdles and pockets more cunning than ever before are among the delightful features. Priced $10.00 to $35.00.

Misses' Tailored Frocks of Serge vestees, tailored collars, close-fitting sleeves, and much braid and button trimming. Colors navy or black. Excellent values at $29.75 and $32.50.

LUXURIOUS FURS

Autumn Display

RICH SPECIALLY CHOSEN PELTS, DISTINCTIVE AND AUTHENTIC STYLES from the leading fur designers of America, and a variety that meets every demand—these are the dominant notes of the Opening Display of Furs today in the enlarged Fur Department on the Second Floor.

REMINDING US THAT THE OLD IS EVER NEW, IS THE DECIDED VOGUE FOR QUAINT COATEES AND CAPES, such as our mothers and grandmothers used to wear. They are mostly of Hudson seal (seal rat), in a host of favored styles. Magnificent long coats—models from a leading New York maker, and not duplicated elsewhere, are also here in glorious array. To describe a few: A HANDSOME COATEE OF HUDSON SEAL has its fullness held in place by a broad sash, and is enriched by a great collar of beaver. Another gains distinction from exquisite trimmings of flying squirrel. Still another cape is long, full, and cut to roll high about
