Americans (Sox) 2 1 .633 Nationals (Cubs) 1 2 .333 Chicago, Oct. 11.—Today's game between the Chicago teams of the National and American Leagues was a battle royal between pitchers and the American League team won, 3 to 0. Twenty-one batsmen struck out; for 12 of these the credit goes to Walsh. In addition he gave only one pass and allowed but two hits, both in the first inning. Thereafter the Nationals never had any sort of a chance to score. Preister, the left-handed pitcher, went into the box for the Nationals. He pitched until the sixth inning. It was here he went to pieces and the game was lost. Tannehill, reputed to be a weak batter, singled down the third base line. Somewhat disconcert-ed, Preister allowed Walsh to walk and a moment later hit Hahn in the face, breaking his nose.
A doctor was called and O'Neill went out for Hahn and finished the game for him. The bases were now full, with nobody out. A pandemonium of cheers from American League sympathizers broke. Preister pulled himself together and there was a sigh of relief from National League fans. The tallies stood on third, one out, Preister allowed Walsh to walk and a moment later hit Hahn in the face, breaking his nose.

Miss Adams v. Mrs. Barlow and Miss Phillips v. Miss Curtis To-Day.

West Newton, Mass., Oct. 11.—Four matches two of them well fought, and the others early decided, narrowed the field in the third round of the Women's National Golf Championship at the Brookline Club from three to four veteran players, three from the Boston district, which includes Springfield, and one from Philadelphia. The survivors were Miss Adams of the Wollas-ton Club, Boston; Mrs. F. Barlow of the Merion Country Club, Philadelphia; Miss Harriet Curtis of the Country Club, Boston, and Miss Phillips of Springfield. The players will meet in that order to-morrow in the semifinals.
In the semi-finals to-morrow Miss Adams is a slight favorite over Mrs.
Barlow, and Miss Phillips is looked upon as having a trifle the better chance in her contest with Miss Curtis.
Miss Adams of the Wollaston Club, Boston, had a doughty opponent in Mrs. F. C. Barlow of Philadelphia, but after being on the down at the turn the Boston woman rallied and won the 18th green up and 2 to play. Miss Annie Phillips of Springfield had a good one with Miss Ayres of Philadelphia, and although being up at the turn, was compelled to go to the 16th green before she won 4 up and 2 to play. Mrs. H. Barlow of Philadelphia easily defeated Mrs. F. W.
Batchelor of Boston 8 up and 6 to play, and Miss Harriet Curtis of Boston defeated Mrs. Fellow Morgan of New York without difficulty 6 up and 5 to play.
The three defeated champions of yesterday were interested speculators to-day. They were Miss Pauline Mackey, the present titleholder, Miss Margaret Bingham of Philadelphia, the 1904 tournament, and Miss Frances C.
Osgood, the eastern champion, who had been dropped in the second round of match play.
The results of two rounds of match play in the New England intercollegiate golf championship at the Woodland Golf Club to-day left F. W.
Upton of Bowdoin, and M. Stanton of Dartmouth to compete in the finals for the title to-morrow. The deciding contest as usual will be for 66 holes.
Upton, after an unexpected victory over W. Mitchell, the captain of the Williams team in the morning round, won easily from A. Greenery of Williams in the afternoon contest.

BIG BOWLING MATCH OFF.
Committee So Decides Owing to Weather and Lack of Greens.

The committee having charge of the arrangements for the East v. West contest, met at the Victoria Club last evening and was the unanimous decision that this match be called off for the present year, owing to the unfavorable weather, and also the lack of available greens.
It is the first time in 12 years the fixture has been abandoned.
After consideration it was decided that the president and secretary of each club make collection of at least $1 per rink, ordered, and remit as soon as possible to the general secretary, W. H. Hall, No. 8 Lee street, Toronto, who will proceed to donate for the purpose already announced.
Curling.

Lean, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Burnett, A. tives. R. P. Mitchell, president, elected

O'Neil, president; D. Brockbank, hon. president; John Carle, representative member; J. S. Armitage, treasurer; D. Brown, responding secretary; F. Snoke and J.
