Rev. Mr. Hill Takes Vacation—Citizens Visit England.

NORTH TORONTO, June 21.—The Rev. Albert Leese, a student of Victoria College, is engaged by the Davisville Methodist congregation for the pastoral duties of the church during the two months' holidays granted the pastor, the Rev. Newton Hill. Rev. Mr. Hill leaves in a few days for the highlands of Ontario for the benefit of his health.

Preparations are complete for Saturday's picnic on the grounds of the Davisville school. The Mimico Industrial School Band will be in attendance.

Herbert Darling has completed his new house, on the corner of Yonge-street and Eglington-avenue, and opened a butcher shop in the new premises. Rev. Mr. Johnston of Paisley will conduct the services in the Eglington Presbyterian Church on Sunday, both morning and evening.

Mrs. Waugh of Kensington-avenue and her daughter Dorothy started on a trip to England to-day.

Rev. Wesley Leech of Parkdale will occupy the pulpit of the Davisville Methodist Church both morning and evening on Sunday.

The coolest place in North Toronto is to be found at Twiddy's Ice Cream Parlor, corner Yonge-street and Eglington-avenue.

NORTH YORK LIBERALS HAVE GALA TIME

Rain Falls to Dampen Enthusiasm—Jury Empanelled Adjourns For Week.

AURORA, June 21.—(Special.)—In the pretty little town of Aurora, the home of T. Herbert Lennox and Fred Underhill, Conservative and Liberal candidates in the legislature for the historic old riding of North York, an attempt was made to revive the old-time enthusiasm and vigor which has marked the history of the latter party in days past.

For a long time flaming posters have heralded to-day's event, and the presence of Hon. Mr. Aylesworth and Hon. Mr. Lemieux, postmaster-general, was secured for the occasion. The latter arrived (owing to a detention on the C. P.R.) at the eleventh hour, but the visit and address of Hon. Mr. Lemieux (his first appearance in Ontario) was the event of the day. The latter met with an excellent reception, as did all the candidates. The line of procedure, as marked out by the reception committee, was generally adhered to, the only extra number on the bill of fare being a short, sharp thunderstorm, in the middle of the proceedings, which had the effect of scattering the crowd, variously estimated at from 500 to 1000, in all directions, and delaying for about half an hour the flow of oratory.

But in the afternoon the sun shone again and the speaking, which had been temporarily carried on in the drill hall, was resumed in the park. The attendance from outside the riding was fairly representative, the majority of the visitors arriving on the grounds shortly before noon. A party comprising Hon. Mr. Graham, H. M. Mowat, president Toronto Reform Association; F. G. Inwood, Liberal organizer; W. F. Sumner, H. C. Irving, Sir Amelius Irving, J. F. M. Stewart, local organizer; J. H. Denton, H. H. Dewar and others came up at noon and were escorted to the grounds, where an elaborate luncheon had been prepared by the ladies. A number of sporting events were run off during the afternoon, prior to the speaking, all of which were keenly contested.

H. S. Cane, president of the North York Liberal Association, was chairman; H. M. Mowat and F. G. Inwood spoke briefly, the latter urging the necessity of organization, and a resounding victory in the near future. Mayor H. W. Fleury read an address to the various speakers, reciting the record of statesmanship carried on under the late provincial and the present Dominion parliaments and paying a glowing eulogy to Sir Wilfrid Laurier in particular.

Hon. Mr. Graham spoke briefly, and was efficiently ill at ease. He attacked the Whitney government along general lines, and charged them with cowardice in the appointment of commissioners to shield themselves. He repeated his old charge regarding the maladministration of affairs in the license department and created a little sensation by the statement that Chairman Brunton of the North York License Board had resigned within the last few days, because he would not do the best interests of the department in the Queen's Park.

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth declared that the Liberal party had its original grievances arising from the family compact. That rebellion was not against the crown, but against a party seeking its own end. The Liberal party, said the minister of justice, stands for toleration. What the Conservative press of the day which seeks to assail the first minister on every pretext. He next turned his attention to Dr. Sproule, as representing the Orange body now in session in British Columbia. "What do you think," said the speaker, of a man so intolerant as to find cause for offence in the fact that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, while in Rome, pays his respects to His Holiness as the head of the church? As well charge myself, brought up in a Methodist home, with paying my respects to Dr. Carman, a Presbyterian with calling on his moderator. He charged that disension existed between Mr. Brown and Sam Hughes, M.P., over the latter's intolerance. The latter was charged with saying that the Rev. Sidney Fisher were matters of history. The strong administrative ability of an Oliver, and a Sifton, had made the man in Canada had ever done more to harmonize conflicting interests and races than Sir Wilfrid.

"You are being told in Quebec," said the postmaster-general, "that we in the Province of Quebec, are not loyal to British law and institutions. Do not be afraid of our loyalty. It does not come from the lips, but from the heart. We have inherited a religious creed," said the speaker, "and we will maintain it."

Fred Underhill, the candidate, was visibly agitated when he called upon, but had prepared himself for the occasion by a typewritten address, which he read to the audience. The meeting closed with the customary cheers. In the evening a promenade concert was held in the drill shed.

operatives are engaged in night and day work, it has no hospital accommodation, either medical or surgical. The Junction contains a resident population of over 10,000, which has doubled in a very few years and will double again within the next five years. There are 2000 Canadian Pacific Railway employees in the shops and yards. The Canada Foundry Co. employs nearly as many more. The Canadian Cycle Motor Co., Hamiltonian Piano Factory, the Dodge Wood Spill Pulley Co., Gurney Co., Campbell Milling Co., Nord-Union Stock Yards, Gunn's Soap Leavack & Martin Co., Comfort Soap Factory, are among the important laboring industries. It is inevitable that not only medical but surgical cases are being brought to the Junction, and are improperly attended to by having to go into Toronto for the treatment. Three-quarters of an hour would be an exorbitant charge for a private ambulance.

A unique circumstance seems likely to arise now the interests concerned with the necessity for a hospital establishment in the town. With the enforcement of prohibition the Heydon House closed as an hotel. This is a commodious structure of imposing architecture. Some members of the council and legislature have not been slow in obtaining the opinion of competent hospital specialists in Toronto as to the suitability of the big hotel building for a modern hospital. Medical opinion is said to approve the site, structural arrangement of rooms and their adaptation for wards, especially the public wards, which would be provided by the spacious ball-rooms. It is declared that the Heydon House could be converted into a hospital at a minimum cost. Over 150 patients could be easily accommodated.

It is understood the Heydon House was about to be sold and converted into stores and living apartments, owing to the increased demand in the Junction, when Dr. Heydon took the initial steps to organize a company for the maintenance of the hotel, which he owns the hotel, is willing to assist and the provincial government, the town council and the Junction captains of industry will probably co-operate also.

PICKERING. Independent Telephone Company Are Active—Crops Look Well.

PICKERING, June 21.—The Methodist garden party at the residence of H. G. Calvert here on Thursday evening was most successful.

Crops in this vicinity are looking fairly well. Hay will be short and more corn is being planted. The Orthodox Friends' yearly meeting is in progress at this place and many visitors have arrived. John Bell of Audley is not improving and his friends are anxious as to his condition. He is 71 years old and has never been sick before.

There is some talk of a publicity department being established here, whereby the advantages of Pickering as a residential place may be advertised. Pickering firemen are planning for a big time on the first of July. The college grounds have been engaged and a good program is arranged for. A meeting of the Independent Telephone Co. will be held in the Audley schoolhouse next Monday night. It is expected that there will be a hot time.

G.T.R. WILL SPEND $50,000. LONDON, Ont., June 21.—The Grand Trunk management have approved of the expenditure of $50,000 on the extension of the company's shops in the east end. The plans are now in the hands of the chief engineer, Mr. Hobson, and it is expected that tenders will be called for at an early date.

Naomi Card Arrested. Naomi Card, mistress of John Boyd, who is awaiting trial for the murder of E. F. Wandie, in York-street, was arrested in a resort at 107 West Richmond-street, kept by Little Smith. She is charged with being an inmate.
