BURIAL OF MRS. YOUMANS.

Picton People Turn Out En Masse to Witness the Last Rites Over the Philanthropic Woman.

Picton, July 22.—The remains of Mrs. Youmans arrived here over the C. O. Railway at 2.35 p.m. to-day. A large number of friends had gathered at the station. A procession was formed and proceeded to the First Methodist Church, where a large number of friends had already assembled. The Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, pastor of the First Methodist Church, had charge of the service. After singing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Houck of the Main-street Methodist Church. Mr. Jolliffe read the 23rd Psalm and a selection from Revelation. The Rev. Dr. McKay of Woodstock came over from Deseronto to attend the service, but was compelled to return. Mr. W. J. Port, a co-adjutor with Mrs. Youmans in her early work in this vicinity, spoke of her wonderful influence with the young people as exemplified in the building up and holding together the very large Bible class which she so successfully conducted, and the Band of Hope which she organized here and built up with very great success. He referred to her energy and influence in passing the Temperance Act in Prince Edward.

The Rev. S. J. Shorey of Lindsay followed with a short address and said a good picture cannot be made unless the artist gets the proper and best points of view. Neither can a proper idea of Mrs. Youmans' work and character be formed unless by looking at her career from every standpoint. Her work was larger than she anticipated; her sphere was continental.

The Rev. James Kilgour had always found Mrs. Youmans a true friend and a true woman in every place and position.

The remains were laid away in her beautiful plot in Glenwood Cemetery.

Delegates from the W.C.T.U., Belleville, and other points attended the funeral.

A large number of beautiful and costly wreaths and flowers were laid on and around the coffin.

The Apostle of Cuba.

Rev. C. E. McLeod, Peterboro, President of the Baptist Young People's Union of Ontario and Quebec, is on his way home from the B.Y.P.U. convention at Milwaukee. He reports an enthusiastic meeting, 10,400 names being registered. He was much impressed with the addresses of Rev. A. J. Diaz, "The apostle of Cuba." The latter is one of the insurrectionists and expresses himself very strongly against the tyrannical misrule of the Spaniards. The apostle is the leader of the Cuban Baptists, and was captured and imprisoned by the royal army. He was condemned to death and permitted to look upon the scaffold on which he was to die and even the grave in which he was to be buried. He telegraphed the United States Government and the intervention of the latter saved his life. Great applause from American auditors punctuated his address.

The steamer fellows the shore in sight of land the whole way, nearly fifty miles going and returning, for the small sum of 25 cents for the double trip.

THEY STRUCK OIL.

This Valuable Product Was Encountered While Boring for Gas in the Vicinity of Leamington.

Leamington, July 22.—The Ontario Standard Oil Company have been exceedingly fortunate in striking a large flow of oil about a mile east of this town upon the farm of James Foster and Cornelius Quick. The country to the south and west of Leamington is rich in natural gas, and it has always been supposed that adjoining a field of natural gas will be found oil. The company have several gas wells in the territory and began testing the territory east of the town, ostensibly for gas, but anxious to strike oil, which would be a much richer fuel. In the Foster well they struck what must prove a good well. When they got through drilling there was a small flow of gas and at least a hundred feet of oil in the well. It was then securely capped and little was said, but that there was a small flow of gas, but when yesterday they finished the Quick well it was admitted a good flow of oil was struck. When drilling was commenced upon the Quick well a pipe was run about a mile and a half from the Foster well to supply them with fuel. The bursting of the pipe near Talbot-street, about a mile from the supply, let out the secret. Oil was gushing out at a great rate and a great pool was formed in a small ravine alongside the road, where barrels were going to waste. The pressure required to force this out of the Foster well to so great a distance shows that the well must be a good one. What is called shooting the wells will also greatly increase the pressure. The oil has been declared by an experienced oil man, who happened to be here to-day, to be far superior to the Petrolea oil and very much like that produced at the American wells. There is no doubt but that lots of testing will take place and it is supposed by those who profess to be experts in oil, that the territory lies to the east and northeast of this town.

CAME TO SEE THE CIRCUS.

Adventures of Three Lads From Brantford Who Fell Into the Clutches of the Constables.

East Toronto village seems, like the town of a famous writer, to be not only pleased with itself, but able to please everyone. The latest to make their way to it are the three boys who have been missing from Brantford since Sunday, and a description of whom appeared in the city papers. The youthful visitors, T. Campbell, William Johnston and Steves, of ages ranging from 18 to 15, reading in the papers that Main's circus was to be in Toronto on Tuesday and Wednesday made up their minds to see it, and to that end boarded a freight train about midnight of Sunday. They got off at Galt and saw the town and then on Monday night continued the journey to Toronto. On Tuesday morning, after getting some hotelkeeper to give them their breakfast, they watched the parade from King-street and then followed the circus up to ride the elephant and watch the writhings of the serpent. To their great disappointment they discovered that it needed money to do this, and, having none, they thought they would see the suburbs anyway. While walking through the G.T.R. yard at Little York, they saw two men coming towards them and lay down between the ties to hide, but the approachers, who were Constables Hinds and Tidsberry, soon found them and, arresting Steves and Johnston (Campbell having run away earlier), brought them before Magistrate J. P. Ormerod. The prisoners, the latter of whom worked in the Gould Bicycle Company of Brantford, told the Magistrate that they didn't know until reaching Toronto that the show was coming to Brantford, or they never would have made the trip. The Magistrate, after a good lecture, remanded the boys until their parents were written to.

London, July 22.—The premised blue book on Venezuela was issued this evening. It comprises 356 pages, their contents consisting of documents from the Dutch and Spanish archives from 1621 to 1790. WILLIS—REESOR.

A Pretty Wedding on the Lawn at Mayfield Farm Yesterday.

Markham, Ont., July 22.—(Special.)—One of the prettiest weddings that have ever taken place in this neighborhood was celebrated this afternoon at Mayfield Farm, the residence of Mrs. C. Reesor, mother of the bride, 10th Concession of Markham. The contracting parties were Mr. Theo. B. Willis, Brougham's popular postmaster, and Miss Victoria M., eldest daughter of Mrs. C. Reesor. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Oke, on the beautiful lawn, under an arch of evergreens and clematis. The bride was charmingly gowned in white cashmere, with the proverbial orange blossoms, and veil of Brussels nett. Miss Maud Reesor, sister of the bride, officiated as bridesmaid, and looked lovely in white muslin. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Harvey Willis of Brown's Corners.

After the ceremony about 100 guests partook of an elaborate repast on the lawn, the tables being prettily decorated with flowers.

The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, viz.: China dinner and tea set, from her mother and brothers; two steel engravings, Miss Frances and Mr. F. A. Milne; silver berry spoon, D. R. and Mrs. S. F. Freel, Stouffville; oil painting, ex-Reeve Foster and family; oil painting, Miss Maud Reesor; handkerchief case, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Reesor; table scarf, Miss M. Vogan; silver fruit stand, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Nighswander; fancy clothes rack, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fleury; dozen silver egg spoons, Mr. and Mrs. McCullough; Dresden china salad bowl, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson; silver pickle stand, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Button; silver card receiver, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Macey.

The happy couple left this evening amid showers of rice and congratulations, for an extended tour through western towns. Thus Locust Hill loses one of its most amiable and accomplished young ladies. Their friends wish them long life and happiness.

DROWNED AT A PICNIC.

Lawyer William Cline of Port Huron Loses His Life by the Capsizing of His Boat.

Corunna, Ont., July 22.—A sad drowning accident cast a gloom over the happy picnic at Stag Island at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when Lawyer William Cline of Port Huron, Mich., met a watery grave in the blue St. Clair. It appears that the deceased, in company with J. J. Cronan, J. H. Boardman and Dr. Henderson, left the island in a small boat to take part in a fishing tournament. When about 100 feet off the Canadian shore the boat in some unaccountable way capsized, leaving the unfortunate men struggling in the water. Mr. Cline started to swim ashore, but soon turned back to the boat, when he sank. He leaves a widow and two children. He weighed 175 pounds and was 45 years of age. He was a member of the Anglers' Protective Club of Port Huron. His body has not been recovered.

How Two Waterloo Young Men Got Themselves Into Serious Trouble.

Waterloo, Ont., July 22.—About 1 a.m. two bad young men of the town—George Reib and Herman Kalbfleisch, alias "Jesse James," forced an entrance into Mr. Holzworth's barn and stole therefrom his horse and buggy. The owner, on going to the barn in the morning, found the stable empty. He promptly reported the matter to Chief Flynn, who, in a short time, ascertained that the robbers had gone towards New Hamburg. Writing Chief Fraser of that town, a good description of horse and buggy, that official located the turnout in short order, and promptly arrested both parties. High Constable Klippert of Berlin has gone to bring the culprits to the county jail at Berlin.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM—Mr. S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for Inflammatory Rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me.
