of Canada were planted here, and many of the ancient trees are still in bearing condition. Apples were the first fruit grown, and acres of apple trees are still ound, while in the new portions of the fruit growing country there is hardly an orchard to be seen. Those whose fruit farms are of small acreage are cutting up and replacing their apple orchards with what is considered more profitable fruit.

latter business was only started by him in 1890. Since then, it has grown largely. The principal market for the young stock is in Eastern Ontario and the Maritime Provinces. Mr. Smith has 125 acres in fruit, which is probably the largest fruit farm in the country. His 55 acres in vine-yards will this year, with an absence of pests, bear 150 tons of grapes. There are 15 acres of berries, heavily loaded, which will probably go to waste for want of a market. There are 500 peach trees, 6000 plum trees, 3000 pear trees and 600 cherry trees. All fruits are showing a splendid crop.

No cause for risking your life in the risk and uncertainty of getting to the Yukon-Klondike country. A sturdy and hardy expedition of pioneers is being organized to go into this new Canadian Eldorado. Investors can stay at home and take none of the risks. The success of the "Rossland" is all the guarantee you'll need that the shares bought by you will bring you handsome returns. The precious metal is in the Yukon country in untold millions, and a capably managed company, with a capable and expert expedition, will reap a great gold harvest for people who put their cash into it. Only shares actually sold participate in the profits, and a $10.00 envestment just now will yield hundreds. The Company's stock is all treasury stock. Investors have taken a good start. Shares are selling rapidly. Act quickly, if you wish so take advantage of the best that's going. Shares sold only in blocks of 100 and up at 10 cents a share.

THE KLONDIKE AND THE YUKON

THE YUKON REGION

In Canadian territory is attracting the attention of the civilized world. The placer mines there are richer ten times over than any hitherto discovered.

A MERICAN syndicates that sent miners to that region have reaped enormous profits in a very short time. Owing to the difficulties of transportation and procuring food, only strong syndicates and capitalists can successfully operate in that region.

The British=American Prospecting and Development Co'y

Has been organized for the purpose of exploring, locating and working mineral lands, and the Yukon will be the principal field of its operations. Descriptions of this wonderful country and its great deposits of gold have filled columns of the Canadian and American press, and the Dominion Government reports have confirmed the facts. The company is now completing arrangements for a strong party to proceed there this season, to be in a position to operate at once. It will be thoroughly equipped in every respect; good ground will be secured and mining operations pushed with vigor. The company is registered in British Columbia, with its head office in Toronto. Its capital stock is 3.000,000 shares, par value $1. Dividends will be paid only on stock sold. Pending the equipment of the expedition to the Yukon, a limited number of fully paid shares will be sold at 10 cents per share. Send for prospectus and information to
