London, June 12.—Cyril Tolley's vic-tory over Robert A. Gardner of Chi-cago, for the British amateur golf cago, for the British amateur golf championship yesterday, is received with natural gratification by London newspapers, but there is no extravagant note of triumph in their com-

ST. THOMAS, June 11.—Brigadier-General Panet and Major Corrigal, G. S. O.. London, were in St. Thomas this evening and discussed the reorganization of the old 25th Regiment with about a dozen overseas officers. No definite decision was reached, other than that a plan of campaign should be undertaken by local officers, commissioned and non-commissioned, towards re-establishing the unit, to be made of the former members and the veterans settled in St. Thomas.

The expression was unanimous, that with the resurrection of the regiment, the command should be given Captain Gerrard, and that the heads of the companies should be officers who saw service overseas.

The London officers will again meet the local military representatives. The council will probably assist in the financing of the re-establishing, as was done in pre-war years.
