Magistrate Henderson Hears Evidence and Adjourns Case.

wychwood, Jan. 7.—Squire Henderson was at home to about twelve constables, two lawyers, all the hotel-keepers of Weston, Licence Inspector McKenzie and others to-night, the occasion being the police court trial of the Weston hotelkeepers on a charge of selling liquor without a license. Constable John Brown testified that in the Eagle House he found one keg of beer, on tap in the cellar, and in the next cellar he found five kegs full of beer and II empty ones, and a jar of whiskey.

George Brown, tenant of the refreshment room of the Eagle House, acknowledged that the liquor seized was his property. John B. Eagle, the proprietor, who also was charged, gave evidence, but both his and his tenant's case were adjourned till next Friday at 12 o'clock noon.

In the Central Hotel, kept by Mr. Wynn, Constable H. F. Brown found no liquor, but several empty bottles and two two gallon jars, also empty. R. C. Cockburn testified that he kept watch outside when Wynn threw out of the window a bottle of absinthe, which he picked up. No conviction was made in this case.

Constable McMullen, with his three men, searched the Burke Hotel on the same night. The constable stated that he pulled Mr. Burke out of a closet where he was hiding liquors and found a one gallon jug with whis-
