This was the admonition to which "James Toronto" listened yesterday after the laying on of hands by the senior and other bishops of the Church of England in Canada, consecrating him the Right Reverend the Lord. Bishop of the Diocese of Toronto. AUSTRIA MASSING TROOPS

The consecration service was of great mpressiveness and of considerable length. It was five minutes past eleven when the choir entered singing the prowhen the choir entered singing the pro-cessional hymn. It was a quarter to two when the congregation began to disperse after the last strains of the recessional hymn died away. There are really three services, beginning with the communion office and sermon, the Soldiers Ordered to Color by Telelitany, and the consecration form proper. Sh James', in which the service of York Herald Cable.—I arrived here on consecration was held, was filled to the utmost. The centre aisle was reserved my way from Agram. At Fiume soldutmost. The centre aisle was reserved for priests and deacons and the chancel was filled with the dispitaries of the church. Admission to the rest of the church was by ticket, and every seat was occupied. The clergy themselves had to display their tickets to the policemen on duty before entering the schoolhouse where they robed. An

The procession to the chancel following the choir was led by the clerical and lay secretaries of the synod and the chancellor, J. A. Worrell, K.C., in legal robes, and the D.C.L. hood of Trinity.

The Holy Scriptures brought the love of God to men, and the great revelation might well be summarized in the comfortable words, "God so loved the world that He gave of war, in which the priests of the or-His only begotten Son, that whosover thodox church are taking a leading believeth in Him might not perish but have everlasting life." God's loving Nisch. have everlasting life." God's loving determination to save the world assumed a plan. This was revealed in a corporate manner. It was evident that such a plan to save the race could not be handled in any weak or perilous way, nor left to blind chance or without guardianship. He left a corporate body, referred to as a church, a commonwealth, a kingdom and by other names, all implying collective life and being. The preacher supported this by quotations from SS. Stephen and Paul. They might observe three living organisms, running concurrently and leading on to Christ and His kingdom in the old Hebrew dispensation. First old Hebrew dispensation. First was Moses and Joshua and the judges till Samuel, and after them the kings, given at the wilful desire of the people. Then the prophets, Samuel to Malachi and John the Baptist. Thirdly, the church in the wilderness, the sacred priesthood of Aaron to Caiphas, with priesthood of Aaron to Caiphas, with its sacrifice and holy days, its ritual and other observances, the pattern given by God Himself.—Jesus Christ, a prophet mighty in word and deed, a priest not of Aaron's line, but after the order of Melchisadek great David's order of Melchisadek, great David's greater son, united the three divergent lines in Himself and came to plant and ed, prepared, ordained and commanded the apostles to go forth and fulfil His will. This letter, besides emphasizing the good work being done among the benighted Chinese, recounted the fact that twelve bright agrifting young Chinese had bright, ambitious young Chinese had been converted. Then came the generous missionary's brilliant idea.

He suggested to President Falconer that it would be an excellent method of rewarding the twelve to have them given free tultion for four years at Toronto University. Doubtless this suggestion was backed up by pointing to the great advertisement Toronto University would get to University would get among other ambitious Chinese when the twelve returned to Shanghai weighted down with their degrees. The death was made more dramatic by occurring only a few hours after Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard had been guests of Mrs. Townsend, on Massachusetts-avenue, at a dinner gizen in honor of Lady Paget. In fact, it is believed that as soon as Mrs. Lorillard arrived at her home at 230 Hillyer-place, shortly after midnight this morning, she began to prepare for her death.

At about 8.30 o'clock this morning the butler in the Lorillard residence detected an odor of gas permeating the rooms. With little difficulty the origin of the fumes was traced to Mrs. Lorillard's apartments. Opening the door of the bath room, just off of her suite, the butler was horrified to behold the body of the mistress of the house stretched out lifeless on the floor.
