APPROACHING A CRISIS.

British Marine and Shipbuilding Engineers Cannot Get Things Settled.

London, April 14.—The dispute between the British marine and shipbuilding engineers and their employers is rapidly approaching a crisis. A conference was held at the Westminster Palace Hotel today at which an attempt was made to reconcile the disputes relating to working machinery, payment for trial trips and the appointment of a local committee for the settlement of disputes.

The employers rejected the proposals of the engineers in regard to working machinery, and a great strike, which will affect the Glasgow, Belfast, Manchester and Newcastle districts, now seems inevitable.
