Resolutions Adopted Relative to the Late D. J. McLaughlin

All members of Alexandra ,La Tour, Rockwood, Fairville and Victoria sections Temple of Honor, are reqested to meet at the Barrack Green, Carmarthen street on Friday evening, 23rd inst at eight o'clock sharp.

There will be a special meeting in the Salvation Army Citadel, Charlotte street, this evening at 8 o'clock. The programme will consist of recitations, action songs, etc. Brigadier Collier, the provincial secretary, will preside.

The funeral of D. J. McLaughlin was held from his late home, 105 Leinster street this afternoon at 2.30. Service was conducted by Rev. H. D. Marr, in the absence of Rev. Dr. Flanders, pastor of Centenary church. Members of the choir of Centenary rendered the hymn "Asleep in Jesus" and Tennyson's "Crossing the bar."

The cortege was a lengthy one. The directors of the Fernhill cemetery and members of the board of trade at a meeting this afternoon adopted the following resolution: "Resolved that the members of the St.

Brigadier Collier, the provincial secretary, will preside.

J. D. McLaughlin, of Queen's county, was in the city yesterday on his way to Victoria county to look after his lumber interests there. Mr. McLaughlin recently acquired the Perth Milling Co's plant at Perth, and will operate it.

The United States immigration officials yesterday morning ordered a number of people off the Boston train, one was Zena Brown, aged 12, of 29 1-2 Brussels street, and another was Paul Simon Callen, of South Boston. The former got off at Westfield and the latter at Fairville.

N. W. Brown, who is with Dr. Samson on his lecturing tour, has promised to come to St. John a little later in the season and deliver an address in the Every Day Club hall, fully explaining the Dominion government's old age annuities plan.

It is stated that the Halifax tug Roeb-
