Sir

I have the honor to enclose a communication from Mr. W. D. Gibbons who has purchased from the assignee of David Miller his right title and interest in the Waterfronts plots Nos. 20 Robinson St. and No. 20 Water Street Shaplesbury, asking for an extension of time for three months to pay the balance of the purchase money and interest, which I beg respectfully to recommend be granted.

Mrs. Gibbons has remitted One hundred dollars on account of the purchase money.

I have informed Mr. Gibbons that as the sale of the Waterfronts was authorized to be made to Mr. D. Miller, an assignment from the assignee of Miller, Estate should be filed. I have the honor to be

Yours obedient servant
Jas. Phipps.

The Honorable
The Superintendent General of Indian Affairs
