

After the announcement of the winners' names at the Anniversary of 1875, HENRY A. AUSTIN, Esq., M. P. P., announced his desire to offer to the students of the forthcoming year (1875-'76,) a similar medal on similar conditions. GEORGE JOHNSON, Esq., of the Halifax Reporter, proposed, on the same occasion, to place at the disposal of the Faculties, books to the value of fifty dollars, to be competed for on such conditions as may be determined.

In addition to the foregoing, the Alumni and Alumnae Societies offer to the students of the Academies various Scholarships and Prizes. These are defined in the chapters of Catalogue treating of the Constitution and objects of the Societies.

Library, Apparatus, etc.

The Library, containing more than three thousand well-selected volumes, is for the use of all the students.

The Recitation Room, Laboratory, and Lecture Rooms, are furnished with Geographical and Astronomical Maps and Globes, and Philosophical, Astronomical, and Chemical Apparatus.

The Geological and Mineralogical Cabinet has been recently increased by the addition of a fine collection of New Brunswick Minerals, Earths, etc., which was made by the late Mr. Payne. This contains about five hundred specimens, all properly labelled and arranged in eight different cases.

A full supply of all the Text Books, Music, Stationery, materials for Drawing, Painting, etc., needed by students, is kept constantly for sale at the Institution, at the lowest possible prices.

Situation, Buildings, etc.

Sackville, at the head of the Bay of Fundy, is a retired Country Village, pleasant and healthy, and easy of access from all parts of the Lower Provinces.

The Academy Buildings are elegant, spacious and comfortable, and delightfully situated upon an elevation of ground, so that they command one of the richest and most extensive views in British North America.
