Sullivan a Free Agent

The National Board's decision was reversed in Cincinnati on Monday, by the National Baseball Commission when it declared Player John L. Sullivan, of the Toronto club a free agent on the clause in the Players' Fraternity Agreement, which stipulates that on proof of the exercise of an agreement of any kind between a club, by its president or manager, if a minor league club, and a player, not incorporated in the contract between them "such contract shall be null and void, and the player unconditionally released."

Baseball Suit On

Forces of organized baseball attacked by the Federal League as a combination operating in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law were before Judge Landis in the U. S. District court in Chicago on Wednesday fighting for an injunction sought by the Federal League.

The Federal league seeks to dissolve organized baseball which operates under the so-called national agreement, as it is alleged it violates the anti-trust law. Organized baseball includes practically every league in the nation, exclusive of the Federal organization.

The Federals also seek to enjoin the individual defendants from interfering with players now under contract to the federal organization and also asks that the contracts with players made by the defendants and each of them under the national agreement be declared null, void and of no effect.

If the Federals are successful in the quest for a temporary injunction, steps will immediately be taken to obtain a permanent order.

Should contracts be declared null and void it would make "free agents" of all players except such as are now signed by equitable contracts.

The defense of organized baseball that it does not operate in violation of the anti-trust law will be based on section 6 of the Clayton act recently passed by the U. S. Congress. This section declares that the labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce.

New Curve Invented.

Pete Stanbridge, a Cub recruit, has announced that he has devised a new shot, which he calls a fork ball. The ball is pitched with the index and second finger of the right hand. The result, according to the discoverer of the curve, is remarkable. The ball breaks in, out or down. The only handicap at present is that Stanbridge has no idea which curve will prevail after the ball leaves his hands.

Party to Cuba.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McGraw, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lobert and Mr. and Mrs. Christy Mathewson, sailed on Monday from New York for Cuba for a few weeks' vacation. While in Cuba, McGraw will look over several promising Cuban players. He will also have a talk with Marans, who jumped the Cincinnati club last season for the Federal League. Marans has told friends that he would probably go back to organized ball if he could get his berth with the Giants.

Made Money.

The Toronto Canadian League ball team lost $2,000 for its owners at the gate last season. The club, however, turned over six of its players to the International League Club, for one of whom the club has been offered $2,500. With this view, the club has earned $500 and five players, one or two of them excellent prospects.

Hank O'Day Out?

It is said on good authority that Hank O'Day, the disposed manager of the Chicago Cubs, will not be asked to return to his old job as umpire in the National League next season. O'Day does not stand in the good graces of the powers that be, since he made several indifferent remarks about the Boston Braves last season, when Johnny Evers joined the club. It is said that O'Day has been notified that he is wanted by the Am-
