Marvin Hart In "Comeback"

Louisville, Ky., March 29.—Ten years after he won a 20-round bout from Jack Johnson, Marvin Hart, heavyweight pugilist of Louisville, yesterday announced his intention to return to the prize ring. On March 28, 1905, he was awarded the decision over Johnson at San Francisco. Hart's last fight was in 1911, when he was knocked out by Carl Morris in three rounds at Seaside, Okla. Since his retirement, Hart, who is 38, has been serving as a deputy sheriff.

News of the Boxers

While Ritchie, more than ever convinced that he can defeat Freddie Welsh comes out with an offer to bet Welsh $10,000 if the latter will agree to box him in Denver for the $15,000 offered by the promoters of that city.

Ritchie is about the first boxer to declare that he does not need any more money, as he has plenty of it. He is not turning down any of the no-decision bouts that are offered him, however.

Mike Gibbons, who has shown that he is a brainy boxer, has found out that he needs a secretary on account of the prominent position he holds in the game. His time is so occupied figuring out offers he gets that he has had to have some one do his letter writing.

BASEBALL

St. Peter's League.

A meeting of the baseball players of St. Peter's Y. M. A. was held last evening and plans for the coming season were discussed. A league consisting of four teams will be formed and games will be played four evenings every week. Judging from the material at hand the teams will be strong and the games should be keenly contested. The games will be played in St. Peter's large field in the rear of Clarendon street.

Shake-Up in Giants.

"Inside information just received from Marin indicates radical changes in the make-up of the Giants," writes Joe Vila in the New York Evening Sun. "To speak bluntly, the New York manager is prepared to supplant Chief Meyers and Larry Doyle if they do not improve. Harry Smith, the regular catcher, is making the Indian look as slow as a cart horse, while Brainard, a Texas League second baseman, is ready to cover that base regularly. Fred Merkle, on the other hand, remains high in McGraw's favor and will not be displaced by Holke. The regular pitching staff this year will include Matthewson, Tressau, Ferritt, Fromme, Marquard, Schupp, Schauer and Ritter.

Who Wants Bill Sweeney?

Hot Springs, Ark., March 29.—What is to become of Bill Sweeney, the old National league player, who is now with the Red Sox, is getting to be a question here. Bill up to date has failed to show where he can be of much value to the Boston Americans this season. While he is holding fairly well, he is way off at the bat, having failed up to the present to land a safe hit in a regular game, although at times he has hit in tough luck.

With the present Boston infield playing such fine ball, Heinie Wagner, regaining the use of his arm that kept him from the game last season, and with Mike McNally showing up so promising, there seems little chance for Sweeney to land a berth.

Now it is rumored that if he fails to make good with the Red Sox, Dave Shean, manager of the Providence club, does not want him for that city. Shean is quoted as saying that he wants to build his team up with fast young players and that he does not care for any veterans who are not strong enough to hold their position in the big leagues.

Killing is to Stay Retired.

Kansas City, March 30.—John Kling, former Cub catcher, when shown a Chicago despatch saying he might succeed George Stovall as manager of the Kansas City Federal club, said he would not play baseball this year.

"I do not expect to be connected with the Federal League," said Kling. "I have had several offers from organized baseball at big money, but have decided to remain here and look after my business interests."

PARADE OF CHILDREN

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a grand street parade, with band and drum corps, through the business section of the city, in which all boys and girls are invited to march.

Each one is requested to bring his own flag, a Union Jack or the flag of an ally.

The parade will assemble in King street directly after school and parade will start at four o'clock.

Come and do your share toward helping the playgrounds association to continue its Boys' Club, Girls' Club and supervised playgrounds by marching in this parade. Per order.
