LOCAL NEWS

The police report that a water pipe burst yesterday in Sewell street, near the corner of Pond.

A purse found in Coburg street and a raincoat found in Dorchester street awarded owners at central station.

Rev. R. F. McKim, of St. Luke's church will conduct the services in Trinity church, St. Stephen, on Sunday.

Many bargains await purchasers at N. J. Lahood's great sale at 282 Braselia street, corner of Hanover. Don't fail to come today!

Sunday night meetings in the Every Day Club will be resumed a week from tomorrow evening when Rev. W. R. Robinson will be the speaker.

G. Earl Logan has been retained by Andrew Ross, the Italian charged with murder, to defend him at his trial. In this case the evidence of Detective Klen and Policemen Gooling, remains to be taken, for the prosecution.

The following have been reported for having vehicles for hire in the city without a license: Wm. and Vincent Caples, W. H. and L. E. Blizarski, Chas. Haley, Leo Smith, and James Alexander. The report is made by Sergeant Campbell.

A meeting of the C. J. John typographical union will be held in their hall in the Opera House this evening. It is expected that the question of taking steps to organize a Trades and Labor Council to include all the international unions of the city will be brought up.

Robert Allison of Apohaqui, chose a precarious seating place yesterday afternoon, when under the influence of liquor he lay down near the track at the Union depot, with $200 in his possession. He parted with eight of it in reporting in the police court. Wm. Livingston was fined $8 on a charge of drunkenness.

At the board of health office this week, six deaths were reported, from the following causes: Cholera infantum, 2; and heart failure, cirrhosis of liver, convulsions, meningitis, one each. Owing to the body of John Sherwood not having been found, the seventh death was not registered.

Preaching services have been conducted during the past four Sundays in the grounds at Egworth Park. This week the foundation of the new place of worship has been laid and on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock Rev. Neil McLennan will preach and it will be Mr. Crisp's last Sunday at the park for the present.

Volunteer Aidmen—Old Home Week is to be observed at Kingston and Trenton, this county, from August 14th to 18th. All the native-born sons and daughters are invited to be present. A good programme is being prepared. Revs. Dr. DeWolfe, W. V. Higgins and W. H. Rollins, this town, are planning to attend and take part in the exercises.

This morning while conveying the Hasam concrete mixture from one side of Main street to the other, the gears which hold the shafts to the mixer broke, and as a result, cars, teams, and traffic generally were stopped for at least ten minutes. A team of horses, however, came to the rescue and after much difficulty removed the obstacle.

At Parrboro on Thursday evening when Rev. E. E. England, of Port Greville, and Rev. Joseph E. Donkin were driving home from Southampton, they met another car on the highway climbing the Digway hill, a few miles from town. It was very foggy and in trying to avoid a collision Mr. Donkin drove over the bank, overturning his carriage. He had two ribs broken and was badly bruised and some severe bruises.

The home of Daniel Connelly, Mill street was the scene of a very enjoyable home party last evening in honor of John Willoughby and William Gofney, relatives of Mr. Connelly. There were about twenty couples present, and a very pleasant evening was spent with music and games. Messrs. Willoughby and Gofney leave this evening on the Boston train for their homes in the States. While in the city, both young gentlemen have made numerous friends, and no doubt their absence will occasion much regret.

Thursday's St. Croix Courier says—Rev. S. Howard and Mrs. Howard leave tomorrow for a trip across the continent, Mr. Howard being one of the delegates from the New Brunswick conference to the general conference to the Methodist church in Canada which meets this year in Victoria, British Columbia. The best wishes of many friends in St. Stephen accompany them for a pleasant journey and a safe return. Since assuming the pastoral charge of the Methodist church here about a year ago, Mr. Howard has faithfully ministered to his charge and has greatly endeared himself to his people. During the next five weeks Rev. C. W. Squires, M. A. B. D. will occupy the pulpit and supply the pulpit of the St. Stephen Methodist church.

MELBA AT THIRD

That the opera Melba with four great artists will be the highest water mark of local social and musical events will probably be readily conceded. Efforts are being made to have the great singer at the Lyric, and the view of the fact that in recognition of the concert the exhibition management very kindly changed the formal opening hour from eight to nine in the afternoon, and it seems quite likely that, if possible, the diva will concert.

Miss Minnie Holt left Monday for a visit with relatives in St. John and Orancton. She was accompanied by Miss Lena Miller, who has been the guest of Miss Margaret Holt during the past month. St. Croix Courier.

READY FOR THE BIG BAND CONCERT

Preparation are Well Advanced —Seats for About 2,000 People

Preparations for the big band concert in King Square on Monday evening next in aid of the fire sufferers of Campbellton, are nearly completed, and it is expected to be one of the grandest musical events in late years in St. John. This morning workmen from the St. John street railway were at work placing lights in position about the walk, and over benches of all the benches owned by the city, so that about two thousand people will be able to find seats.

The programme for the entertainment has not yet been definitely completed, but will be given by the city's eight bands, in the following order: Pipes band, Scotch pipes; Elm Artillery; Capetown Cornet, City Cornet, and St. Mary's. Beginning at 7.30 with the pipes, the concert will probably start at 8 o'clock. Boys will be in evidence at various sections, into which may be dropped whatever among the citizens desire to contribute to the worthy cause.

MARKET BUILDING IS BEING PAINTED

First Time in Nine Years—Little Change in Prices of Produce

For the first time in nine years, the city market building is to be given a thorough painting and to this end work was begun yesterday by a gang of men under James Hays. When completed the market will present a much cleaner appearance, and will be in better form for an inspection by visitors during the period of the exhibition. It will be probably nearly a month before the whole building has been given a new coat, the coloring of which will be slightly different from that which is to be seen at present.

The market this morning was quite plentifully stocked with meats and new vegetables, and there were many buyers. There has been but little change in the prices of meats for some time, but lamb this morning was slightly cheaper, selling for from 11 to 14 cents. New vegetables are becoming more abundant, and consequently lower in cost.
