Lordship Gives Brief Review of 1926 at

Cathedral In the Cathedral on New Year's morning, His Lordship Bishop Leblanc conveyed New Year greetings to the people and spoke feelingly of events of the year, especially in relation to the Cathedral parish. The catholics of the whole diocese, he said, and of every parish of it had reason to be grateful to God for the blessings of the last year. Speaking particularly of the Cathedral parish His Lordship, recalled some of the outstanding matters of the year accom-plished under the direction of the Rev. W. M. Duke, their "zealous, energetic and deeply spiritual pastor."

Among material lines, he referred to improvents made to the interior of the Cathedral, and on the grounds surrounding the church and also the great improvement made in the new Cathelia cemetery. He paid a tribute to the W. M. Duke, their "zealous, energetic ic cemetery. He paid a tribute to the people for their generous support of the church and the Catholic institutions and in this connection instanced the collection on Christmas Day for the orphans, which he said was perhaps the largest in the history of the ( dral, despite that times were not good and that there had not been a special appeal made.

His Lordship referred to the large number in attendance at the New Year's Day masses and on all Sundays of the year. He spoke of conditions n Mexico where the doors of the churches had been closed by the civil powers and contrasted this with the liberty that was enjoyed under the British Government, another cause of of the year. Pleasure was expressed at the very large number of the Cathe-dral parishoners who had become fresion conducted by Redemptorist Fathers last winter, the triduum in honor of St. Aloysius and other events quent communicants and at the deep spiritual life of the people. He wished them all blessings in the new year.
