against the C. N. R. authorities for false arrest. "What we want" he said, "is the establishment of the freedom of the press. Mr. Tingley gave permission for the sale of the Times-Star on the station platform. Somebody revoked that permission. Mr. Tingley said that he did not; then somebody must have gone behind him or the Times-Star of the revocation of the permission."

LAWYERS NOT PRESENT

The judge at this point remarked that the C. N. R. lawyers were not in court, raising the question of discussion of the matter with them not present. Dr. Taylor, "Your Honor, I came from Saint John to be present when you gave judgment; I did it out of deference to the court."

WILL FIGHT TO FINISH

In agreeing to the adjournment, Dr. Taylor remarked that the defence did not intend to drop this matter before it was brought to a final and definite conclusion. He said that this was only the start of the proceedings, which it deems worthy of criticism, and to praise those whom they believe are deserving of praise.

NEPISIGUIT BILL PASSED IN COMMITTEE

Development of Additional Power In Northern Part of N. B.

CAPITALIZATION OF COMPANY $5,000,000

Statement Made By Angus McLean To Corporations Committee

FREDERICTON, April 7.—One of the most important bills presented to the Corporations Committee in a great many years, involving a big hydro-electric and industrial extension on the North Shore was approved with a few amendments this morning when the committee reported the bill being promoted to incorporate the Nepisiguit Power Company, Ltd., with a capitalization of $5,000,000. Development of an additional 22,000 horsepower on the Nepisiguit River will cost the Nepisiguit Power Company, Ltd., a subsidiary of the Bathurst Company, Ltd., $18 per horsepower according to a statement made by Angus McLean, president of the Bathurst Company, Ltd., before the Corporations Committee of the New Brunswick Legislature this morning, when the committee considered the bill to incorporate the Nepisiguit Power Company, with an authorized capitalization of $5,000,000. Power would be developed at a cost of $17.50 at the bus bars, plus the 50 cent royalty per horsepower, and the cost would be delivered in Bathurst at approximately $20 per horsepower.

VENIOT AND PREMIER

Ex-Premier Veniot questioned the policy of determining the policy of a project could be proceeded with. The committee decided to report the bill.

RECEIVES CHECK AND SILVER GIFT

Miss M. Allan Honored By Waterbury & Rising Ltd. and Staff

The Waterbury and Rising Ltd. building was the scene of a happy event last evening when members of the firm and staff gathered to pay honor to one of the staff who is soon to be married. The guest of honor was Miss Margaret Allan, who has been a member of the King street staff for some years and who has been a prime favorite with all the employees.

E. L. Rising, president of the firm, expressed their regret at the severing of the pleasant ties which had existed and extended best wishes for a happy future at the same time presenting to Miss Allan a substantial cheque.

The gift of her fellow employees was a handsome case of silver. Accompanying the gift was a certificate from "Dan Cupp" entitling her to receive a marriage license, and a poem in which the virtues of the male members of the staff and the firm were extolled. Miss Allan made a suitable reply.

At a recent shower in honor of Miss Allan, held at the home of Miss Margaret, Elm street, she received a number of useful and pretty gifts.
