BANKER PEER SAYS REASONS FOR HONOR ADEQUATE. London, June 14.—(Canadian Press).—Sir J. B. Robinson, a South African banker, who was recently made a peer, arrived in London yesterday on the S. S. Windsor Castle. He had received news of his elevation to the peerage by wires.

Interviewed by Reuter's correspondent in reference to South African and English criticisms of his selection for special favor in the king's birthday honors list, the peer declined to reply. He declared that the imperial government had offered him a peerage for adequate reasons which would soon be made known. He considered his accomplishments and work in the last fifty years a sufficient reply to his critics.

THE JUNE BRIDES

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at four o'clock in St. Jude's Anglican church, West Side, when Miss Victoria May Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilcox, 188 City Line, was united in marriage with Christy Nelson Belyea.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. A. Holmes, rector of the church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the young people. The bride looked very pretty in a bridal gown of white satin with pearl trimmings, bridal veil and a coronet of Spanish lace and orange blossoms.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Alton Belyea. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Wilcox, who looked charming in pink satin with georgette trimmings and hat to match.
