L. Floyd Wins the Cup.
The final heat of the race for boys or seventeen years of age for the silver cup, donated by the management of Victoria rink, was skated last night between the fifth and sixth hands. Four were entitled to start in this race, but number had qualified in the preliminary held two weeks ago, but one of these was unable to do so owing to illness. The race was hotly contested and it was only after a final burst of 100 feet that L. Floyd crossed the line first of N. Scott, who finished a close second.

Gorman's 440 Record.

The Evening Sentinel, Ansonia, Conn., writes Gorman, a brother of Mrs. L. Gorman and John Gorman, both of whom broke the world's skating record in the 440-yard race at Lake Placid, N. Y., on Friday of last week. This had been held by Bobby McLean for the past twenty years. McLean held the championship in an indoor race, Gorman won the race out-of-doors, in a blinding snow storm. Gorman will receive a diamond medal, awarded by William Gratton of Pittsfield, Pa. The contest which has been going on for three days, was brought to a close Friday and the final in the national association's skating championship were decided. Gorman's home is in St. John, N. B., Canada, but he has visited in Ansonia a number of times, the last being two years ago. He served four years in the Canadian army. Gorman came in first in the senior 440 dash, and was followed by Charles Saw of Lake Placid, and Roy McTer of Chicago.

BAKER PREPARING

TO REJOIN YANKEES

Veteran in Fine Trim and is Anxious to Play Again, Says Fewster.

(New York Times)
Frank Baker is all set for a return to baseball, and he will sign a contract for Manager Miller Huggins during the coming week. This was the information divulged yesterday afternoon at the Yankees' forty-second Street office by Chick Fewster, who came to New York to arrange for his journey South with the first squad of Yankee players next Friday.

Fewster met Baker in Baltimore on Friday, soon after the former king of home-run hitters had left Joe Kelley, veteran scout of the Ruppert-Huston firm. Kelley's report on his interview probably was sent along to Manager Huggins, who is now engaged in a round-up of some of his dilatory contract signers. In the meantime Fewster brings the message which indicates Baker's frame of mind in regard to returning to baseball.

"Baker looks just as fit to get into a ball game today as he did the last time he wore a New York uniform," said Fewster yesterday. "He has not taken on an extra pound, and he still carries that glow of health and strength that are so often missing after one passes his thirtieth birthday. Of course, Baker always took the best of care of himself, and I am sure that he is every bit as good a ball player today as when he was playing third base regularly during the 1919 season.

"Frank told me that he had not been so anxious about coming back to base of the soldiers and went down on the ball owing to the severe illness of his daughter, but she is now out of danger and gaining fast. He is making arrangements for the care of his children and naturally prefers to play with a club which has a chance, rather than with a team that cannot hope to finish above third or fourth place."

when the vessel was torpedoed in the Mediterranean. Hugh stood by with the Captain of the ship. They saved 1,950 of the soldiers and went down on the bridge together.

General Cheape said he hoped the American team would win the polo cup again because it would revive the interest in polo, which lagged a good deal in the war.

Another passenger was Dr. Marie Pousa from Prague, the capital of Czechoslovakia, who said that she had been sent here by President Masaryk to study social welfare. Dr. Pousa will attend the School of Philanthropy and remain several months. Others on board were the Hon. Ronald G. Whitley, Captain John Reid and Miss Dorothy M. K. Waldron, daughter of the British Consul in Honolulu.

HOW POLO STAR DIED

Captain's Squadron, Surrounded by Turks Near Jerusalem, Preferred Death to Surrender.

(New York Times)
Brig. Gen. C. R. H. Cheape, C. M. G., D. S. O., M. C., who served through the war with the British Army, and his wife, the daughter of James Bruce Innes, former President of the International Mercantile Marine Company, were among the first cabin passengers who arrived from England yesterday on the White Star liner Celtic.

General Cheape, who is as tall as his brother, the late Captain Leslie Cheape, well known as one of the British polo team who played here three times, finally landing the cup.

"My brother Leslie was killed near El Arish on the desert road to Jerusalem in 1916. He was in command of a squadron of Yeomanry and was surrounded by the Turkish cavalry. Sooner than surrender they fought to the last and were wiped out."

"My eldest brother, Hugh, was a Colonel of an infantry regiment and went through the campaign in Egypt where he won the D. S. O., and the Military Cross and was mentioned in dispatches. He was homebound on a transport in charge of 2,000 troops

WEST INDIANS GETTING TIRED OF THIS TALK

Kingston, Jan. 23.—The Gleaner commenting on a resolution of Senator Reed in the U. S. Senate to ascertain whether Great Britain is willing to consider the cession of all or any part of Great Britain's possession in the West Indies to America, says:

"These frequent questions and suggestions about us are beginning to get on the nerves of British West Indians and the people of England. Why should a great empire wish to sell any part of itself?"
