RECENT WEDDINGS

William Lovell Stevens and Mrs. Laura Elizabeth May Stackhouse, both of this city, were united in marriage on Wednesday evening at 310 Carmarthen street, by Rev. F. J. M. Appleman. The witnesses were Herbert Pelley and his wife, who is a daughter of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside at 310 Carmarthen street.

An interesting ceremony took place in Trinity church on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Rev. Canon Armstrong united in marriage Caroline Isabel Orie and William Rutherford Perkins, of Annapolis (N.S.). The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white embroidered georgette over white satin, wore a picture hat to match and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by her little niece, Mary Elizabeth Hamilton, who looked very pretty in a dress of white silk and white lace hat, and carried a basket of roses and carnations tied with a large bow of tulle. Robert Coupe presided at the organ during the ceremony and Mrs. Leslie Watters sang "Oh Perfect Love." After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the residence of Mrs. Herbert W. Hamilton, Queen street. Those who assisted in the dining room were Misses Meriel Hawker, Bernice and Hortense Mooney. The bride's traveling costume was of brown broadcloth with hat to match, and a set of mink furs. Many beautiful presents were received, testifying to the esteem in which they were held. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins left on the Boston train to spend the winter in Florida, and on their return they will reside in Annapolis (N.S.). Among the guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Perkins, and also Mrs. Payne of Annapolis (N.S.).

The marriage took place last evening at the home of W. A. Hordford, 26 St. Patrick street, of Robert Allan Crowe, of Hammond, Kings county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Taylor McKim and after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crowe left for a short honeymoon, at the conclusion of which they will reside in Upland.

At the Main street Baptist church last evening Rev. Dr. Hutchinson united in marriage Charles Orlin Crowe, of Hammond River, Kings county, to Lizzie Howell, of Carleton Place (Nfld.). After a wedding tour they will make their home at Hammond River.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the Main street Baptist parsonage, when Rev. Dr. Hutchinson united in marriage James Hilyard Carson, of Hammond, Kings county, to Eva Thelma Calvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Calvin of this city. At the close of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carson left on a short wedding tour, after which they will reside at Hammond.

RECENT DEATHS

In the death of Mary Buckley, wife of D. J. Buckley, of Westfield (Me.), which occurred at her home Dec. 19, the loss has been one of its highest esteemed residents. Mrs. Buckley was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McInerney, of St. John, and was fifty years and eleven months of age. Funeral services were held at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Main Hill, Rev. Fr. Hayes celebrated high mass and was accompanied by the Presque Isle choir. Interment was at Presque Isle. The bearers were Louis Gaston, E. M. Smith, Frank Sweeney and William Sweeney. Mrs. Buckley leaves to mourn their loss a husband, five daughters, three sons, one brother, F. E. McInerney, of St. John, four cousins, Mrs. M. J. Ryan, St. John; and John T. Montague, assistant foreman.

Mrs. Wm. Crabtree, Delee (N.B.); Miss Elizabeth McInerney, of Boston, and John McInerney, of Van Buren.

The death occurred suddenly yesterday at noon of Miss Margaret McLeod, sister of the late Angus McLeod of Kingston (Ont.), and granddaughter of the late T. Costin of Montreal. The late Miss McLeod is survived by one sister, Miss McLeod of Brookline (Mass.). Although she had been in poor health for several weeks her death was very sudden. She was well known in this city.

Mrs. Mina B., wife of Elmer H. Boone, died yesterday at her home in Fredericton, aged 80 years. She leaves her husband, one son, one daughter and one brother.

LAST NIGHT'S INQUEST

The jury empaneled last evening by Coroner H. A. Porter to inquire into the death of Wesley Duncan McBeth, who died at the General Public Hospital as a result of injuries received by the breaking of a boom on the steamer Thomas J. Drummond, decided that his death was due to his being hit on the head by the boom but gave no opinion as to what caused the boom to break.

Evidence was given by Michael P. Donovan, longshoreman; Dr. E. J. Campbell, internist at the general public hospital; Millidge Marsh and Thomas Quinn, which drivers; John M. Martin, tackle inpector; Joseph Dickson, a coal hauler, and John T. Montague, assistant foreman.

The members of the jury were: David J. Stockford (foreman), Stanley Bustin, William J. Hatfield, John K. Parsons, James A. Little, W. Norman Earle, Herbert J. Keyes.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

KAISER'S DETECTIVE

Doorn, Holland, Dec. 13.—(A. P. By Mail)—The former German Emperor William, has personally engaged a private detective to keep an eye on strangers in the village of Doorn. This is in addition to the state police who guard the House of Doorn, his new home.

Prevention

The prevention of disease is now receiving almost as much attention as the cure.

It is a branch of medical science in which great progress has been made in late years. Most forms of disease, including such as are prevalent now, the grip, pneumonia and diphtheria, may be prevented by keeping the blood in good condition, for pure, rich, abundant blood gives resistive power.

CAT'S NIGHT IN SAFE

Minnie Was Unharmed, But Incarceration Offended Her.

Cats are popularly supposed to have nine lives, and the adventure of Minnie, a cat belonging to Charley, superintendent of a New York apartment house with an office on the ground floor, would seem to substantiate this supposition. Minnie liked to visit the office, where she invariably received a friendly welcome. One evening when the manager was settling up his accounts she wandered into the place. When it came time to close, Minnie was put out for the night, but she returned unseen on the heels of a late customer. The manager, as was his custom, transferred the night's receipts from the cash register to the safe, a small affair. In doing this he was obliged to turn his back upon the door of the strongbox and then departed.

The morning when the day manager opened the safe, out popped Charley's cat, and the worse for the experience. She "meowed" twice, cocked her tail and came to him and put her foot on the edge of the office, with an offended air. Charley said it was pretty rough on a lady, and since her adventure Minnie has not returned to the scene of her former triumph.

Col. F. B. Black of Sackville, was in the city yesterday in the interests of the endowment fund for Mount Allison. He is the chairman of the committee in charge of the campaign for $500,000.

A meeting of friends and former students of Mount Allison was held in the afternoon. At present there are more than 1,000 students taking the various courses at the institutions, these being part of a total of over 15,000 who have attended since its foundation. R. T. Hayes, M. P. P., was selected as chairman of the campaign committee for this district.

A party was given last night at the Y. W. C. A. recreational centre for the girls at Woodworth's. Miss Phyllis Woods, girls' work secretary, was in charge. Miss Madeline Adams presided at the piano, and the evening passed very pleasantly.
