a feeler to find out whether or not he was wanted by the French-Ganadian club again this winter. In the answer, which he immediately despatched, the manager of the Canadiens told Power that he expected him to report with the rest of the squad and get into shape for the season. He hopes to see the big fellow any day now.

Asked about the report that Power was going to New Glasgow for the hockey season, Kennedy said he would not release him to the eastern club, although he might possibly part with him to Quebec, should a deal be put through with the ancient cepital organization.

Ottawa, Dec. 22—The first practice of the season for the Ottawa hockey club was held last night, and but four of last year's team—Darragh, Leseur, Lake and Shore—were in uniform. Ronan was out, Leseur will again captain the cup holders
