

The Evening Times Star

VOL. VII. No. 250

ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1912

TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

BORDEN'S ANNOUNCEMENT IS A DISAPPOINTMENT

No Contribution Unless Canada is Consulted on Expenditure

Ministers Dined by National Liberal Club—Hazen Urges That All Should Have Voice in Imperial Affairs

(Canadian Press)

London, Aug. 2.—Mr. Borden has made his position very clear on the subject of the naval assistance, that Canada is to offer the mother country.

Mr. Borden and his colleagues of the Dominion cabinet told the British cabinet that Canada is prepared to assist Great Britain to maintain her naval supremacy, but when she does so, she will want to be consulted as to the way the money is spent.

When Mr. Borden and his colleagues, comprising J. Douglas Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries; C. J. Doherty, minister of justice; L. P. Pelletier, postmaster general; and Geo. E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, arrived, it was announced that they came with an offer to contribute a squadron of Dreadnoughts, four, to be exact, to England. This was accepted by the public, so there is certain to be some disappointment when the part Canada proposes to take is finally settled. Mr. Borden himself says this will not be until after his return to Canada, and he has had an opportunity of consulting with the full cabinet.

"There are only five of us here, and the cabinet consists of eighteen members, so it is not likely that we should make any decision until we have a full meeting," said the premier, when approached on the subject.

"Not as politicians, but as kinsmen," was the phrase used by Mr. Borden last night, to describe the attitude in which he and his colleagues had come to Great Britain. That, too, was the attitude of the National Liberal Club, as revealed at the banquet presided over by the Marquis of Lincolnshire. Lord Strathcona, the object of the visit, was the center of the history of the empire, at a time when the watchword of all parties must be Britain's supremacy on the seas.

Mr. Borden was most heartily received when he declared that Canadian loyalty was more pronounced now than ever before. The audience applauded long and loud, when the Canadian premier suggested, amidst cheers, that it might be well for British ministers to visit Canada.

Mr. Hazen outlined the position of the Canadians in the border towns with Americans, but said that while our institutions, laws and administration easily, in his opinion, bore off the palm, yet a remedy should be applied in removing the handicap on Canadians, who were voiceless in the affairs of the empire, unlike the Americans, who participated in all that concerned the republic, whether he lived in New York or Hawaii.

"We are simply here," he added, "to find out the true position of affairs and secure all the facts for cabinet consideration."

The facts have been given by the members of the British cabinet, at a series of joint meetings with the Canadian statesmen, who have also had the advantage of conferences with the officials of the admiralty and foreign office. These conferences will be resumed during the coming week.

One of the desires is for a real imperial parliament, representative of the whole empire. The home government has certainly laid the dominions into the secret of foreign policy and has been prepared for some time to give them a voice on the committee of imperial defense. This latter is only an advisory board, however, although several members of the government, including the prime minister, are members of it.

What the Canadians are aiming at is something with a great deal more power than this, in fact an imperial parliament to deal with all matters of interest to the empire, which, of course, would include foreign relations and the defense of the whole and each part.

A very well informed writer, who is in the confidence of the liberal government, points out that any definite scheme should come from the dominions. He adds that the suggestion is a much easier process than it appeared to be a previous generation. The country is ready for any change that would give more definite form and shape to the unity of the empire, and the alimentary institutions are developing naturally in a fair direction, this makes the conclusion of the dominions' decision a less difficult matter.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

TORONTO WELCOMES HER VISITORS FROM OLYMPIC GAMES

Silver Service for Goulding, Winner of World's Walking Championship—Congratulatory Addresses

(Canadian Press)

Toronto, Aug. 2.—Toronto last night extended an inspiring reception to George H. Goulding, winner of the world's walking championship, at the olympic games, and to the other Toronto members of the Canadian team. Hundreds of citizens, including large representations of the athletic clubs, met Goulding and his fellow athletes at the North Toronto station, on the arrival of the Canadian Pacific express from Montreal, and conducted them down Yonge street to the city hall, the route being lined through by applauding spectators.

Acting Mayor Church extended the civic welcome and presented Goulding with a handsome silver tea service of 10 pieces. Congratulatory addresses were made by prominent citizens, one referring humorously to the fact that the birth of a son to Goulding, during his absence, would give him an opportunity to put his proficiency as a walker to practical domestic use.

When Mr. Borden and his colleagues, comprising J. Douglas Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries; C. J. Doherty, minister of justice; L. P. Pelletier, postmaster general; and Geo. E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, arrived, it was announced that they came with an offer to contribute a squadron of Dreadnoughts, four, to be exact, to England. This was accepted by the public, so there is certain to be some disappointment when the part Canada proposes to take is finally settled. Mr. Borden himself says this will not be until after his return to Canada, and he has had an opportunity of consulting with the full cabinet.

"There are only five of us here, and the cabinet consists of eighteen members, so it is not likely that we should make any decision until we have a full meeting," said the premier, when approached on the subject.

"Not as politicians, but as kinsmen," was the phrase used by Mr. Borden last night, to describe the attitude in which he and his colleagues had come to Great Britain. That, too, was the attitude of the National Liberal Club, as revealed at the banquet presided over by the Marquis of Lincolnshire. Lord Strathcona, the object of the visit, was the center of the history of the empire, at a time when the watchword of all parties must be Britain's supremacy on the seas.

Mr. Borden was most heartily received when he declared that Canadian loyalty was more pronounced now than ever before. The audience applauded long and loud, when the Canadian premier suggested, amidst cheers, that it might be well for British ministers to visit Canada.

Mr. Hazen outlined the position of the Canadians in the border towns with Americans, but said that while our institutions, laws and administration easily, in his opinion, bore off the palm, yet a remedy should be applied in removing the handicap on Canadians, who were voiceless in the affairs of the empire, unlike the Americans, who participated in all that concerned the republic, whether he lived in New York or Hawaii.

"We are simply here," he added, "to find out the true position of affairs and secure all the facts for cabinet consideration."

The facts have been given by the members of the British cabinet, at a series of joint meetings with the Canadian statesmen, who have also had the advantage of conferences with the officials of the admiralty and foreign office. These conferences will be resumed during the coming week.

One of the desires is for a real imperial parliament, representative of the whole empire. The home government has certainly laid the dominions into the secret of foreign policy and has been prepared for some time to give them a voice on the committee of imperial defense. This latter is only an advisory board, however, although several members of the government, including the prime minister, are members of it.

What the Canadians are aiming at is something with a great deal more power than this, in fact an imperial parliament to deal with all matters of interest to the empire, which, of course, would include foreign relations and the defense of the whole and each part.

A very well informed writer, who is in the confidence of the liberal government, points out that any definite scheme should come from the dominions. He adds that the suggestion is a much easier process than it appeared to be a previous generation. The country is ready for any change that would give more definite form and shape to the unity of the empire, and the alimentary institutions are developing naturally in a fair direction, this makes the conclusion of the dominions' decision a less difficult matter.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

COMMISSIONERS MUST CLOSE TWO SALOONS IN QUEEN'S WARD

Legal Number Exceeded, Says Rev. Mr. Robinson—Threatens Action if Matter is Not Remedied

(Canadian Press)

Rev. W. R. Robinson, acting on behalf of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation, has again resumed his warfare on the liquor traffic in the city, and this time is centering his efforts in Queen's Ward. At present there are ten liquor saloons in this ward, and Rev. Mr. Robinson has notified the liquor license commissioners that, according to the population of the ward there should only be eight, and that they have made themselves liable by the fact that the birth of a son to Goulding, during his absence, would give him an opportunity to put his proficiency as a walker to practical domestic use.

Acting Mayor Church extended the civic welcome and presented Goulding with a handsome silver tea service of 10 pieces. Congratulatory addresses were made by prominent citizens, one referring humorously to the fact that the birth of a son to Goulding, during his absence, would give him an opportunity to put his proficiency as a walker to practical domestic use.

When Mr. Borden and his colleagues, comprising J. Douglas Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries; C. J. Doherty, minister of justice; L. P. Pelletier, postmaster general; and Geo. E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, arrived, it was announced that they came with an offer to contribute a squadron of Dreadnoughts, four, to be exact, to England. This was accepted by the public, so there is certain to be some disappointment when the part Canada proposes to take is finally settled. Mr. Borden himself says this will not be until after his return to Canada, and he has had an opportunity of consulting with the full cabinet.

"There are only five of us here, and the cabinet consists of eighteen members, so it is not likely that we should make any decision until we have a full meeting," said the premier, when approached on the subject.

"Not as politicians, but as kinsmen," was the phrase used by Mr. Borden last night, to describe the attitude in which he and his colleagues had come to Great Britain. That, too, was the attitude of the National Liberal Club, as revealed at the banquet presided over by the Marquis of Lincolnshire. Lord Strathcona, the object of the visit, was the center of the history of the empire, at a time when the watchword of all parties must be Britain's supremacy on the seas.

Mr. Borden was most heartily received when he declared that Canadian loyalty was more pronounced now than ever before. The audience applauded long and loud, when the Canadian premier suggested, amidst cheers, that it might be well for British ministers to visit Canada.

Mr. Hazen outlined the position of the Canadians in the border towns with Americans, but said that while our institutions, laws and administration easily, in his opinion, bore off the palm, yet a remedy should be applied in removing the handicap on Canadians, who were voiceless in the affairs of the empire, unlike the Americans, who participated in all that concerned the republic, whether he lived in New York or Hawaii.

"We are simply here," he added, "to find out the true position of affairs and secure all the facts for cabinet consideration."

The facts have been given by the members of the British cabinet, at a series of joint meetings with the Canadian statesmen, who have also had the advantage of conferences with the officials of the admiralty and foreign office. These conferences will be resumed during the coming week.

One of the desires is for a real imperial parliament, representative of the whole empire. The home government has certainly laid the dominions into the secret of foreign policy and has been prepared for some time to give them a voice on the committee of imperial defense. This latter is only an advisory board, however, although several members of the government, including the prime minister, are members of it.

What the Canadians are aiming at is something with a great deal more power than this, in fact an imperial parliament to deal with all matters of interest to the empire, which, of course, would include foreign relations and the defense of the whole and each part.

A very well informed writer, who is in the confidence of the liberal government, points out that any definite scheme should come from the dominions. He adds that the suggestion is a much easier process than it appeared to be a previous generation. The country is ready for any change that would give more definite form and shape to the unity of the empire, and the alimentary institutions are developing naturally in a fair direction, this makes the conclusion of the dominions' decision a less difficult matter.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

WILLET VS. DONALD

Argument in the case of Willet vs. Donald was continued in the Civil Court before Judge Ritchie this morning. This is the case involving a $50 check which was given by the defendant to the plaintiff for a part option on some property in German street. Payment on the check was refused when it was presented at the bank, the defendant claiming that the option was not secured satisfactorily to him. Mr. R. M. Rice is appearing for the complainant and C. F. Inches and K. J. MacLachlan for the defence. His Honor said that he would give judgment in the case on Thursday next.

JACK JOHNSTON HOPES TO POSE AS BIRDMAN

But Starts by Racing Negro's Airship in His Automobile

(Canadian Press)

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Jack Johnston, champion pugilist, will engage in a race in his big car against an airship driven by L. Arthur Hesdorn, the first, and said to be the only, negro aviator in the world, at Hawthorne race track next Sunday afternoon. Johnston announced last night that he had been told that his weight was not seriously against him and that he was considering taking up aviation himself.

London, Aug. 2.—The Grand Lodge of Free Masons, Scotland, yesterday, dismissed the appeal against the sentence of suspension passed on the Dundee lodge in connection with the initiation of Jack Johnston, the pugilist. The lodge was suspended in amount of irregularities in the initiation.

New York, Aug. 2.—The next boxing act to cross the Atlantic to this side will be Lefoux, bantam weight champion of Great Britain, who is expected to arrive in New York next week. He is expected to fight against the bantam weight champion of the United States, in five rounds. The bout is expected to take place at Madison Square Garden, New York, on August 10th.

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—Jack Welch will referee Saturday afternoon's 20-round fight between Paul E. McManus and Tomp Murphy, according to a statement by promoter O'Driscoll last night.

International Affair in the Police Court

—Nine Months for Women Prisoners

—Other Cases

Samuel Teopulos, a Greek, was arraigned in the police court this morning, charged with assaulting Paul E. McManus, who was charged with assaulting the Greek. The case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Magistrate REFUSES TO RELEASE MCCOY

London, Aug. 2.—"Kid" McCoy (Norman Selby), the boxer, was brought up again at the Bow street police court today and again remanded until August 8, when the papers connected with the case are expected to arrive from Belgium. The police magistrate once more refused to release by such an amount, but that the judge of the court, who had been given information from the people who had preferred the charge of alleged larceny, said that he was not prepared to release McCoy.

KILLED IN SAWMILL AT CHATHAM, N. B.

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 2.—This morning about five minutes to seven, before the mill whistle had blown for work to commence, Allan McDonald, of Chatham, was killed in a sawmill at Chatham. It seems that he was going from the mill to the yard and in some unknown manner he had been caught in the pillar shaft and was whirled around and so before the machinery could be stopped he had been killed. The deceased lived in Chatham, being millwright in Sinclair's at the time of his death. The deceased was survived by one brother, James J. of Bathurst, and the following children: Alexander, Chatham; Allan, who was working with him in Newcastle; Miss Minnie, Chatham; Miss S. G., student nurse in Somerville, Mass.; Miss Nellie, student nurse in Amherst, and Mrs. James Doyle of Jacques River.

THE FISH MARKET

Those who, through religious tendencies or force of habit, appreciate a fish dinner on Friday had a fairly wide variety to select from today as the market was well stocked with such kinds as are usually the favorite of the men of the sea. Although the season is rapidly passing and there was a plentiful supply of salmon at from 19 to 20 cents a pound today, and many of the stock were what are known as fiddlers, or small salmon. The source of supply was mostly local, both harbor and bay fishing having been very good this week, which was most gratifying, as the salmon run on the North Shore and about Newfoundland has ceased. The season for salmon locally ends on August 22. There were quite a number of "raker" mackerels on the market today selling at 30 to 35 cents each. The first of the run of fall eels was on hand today, bringing from 20 to 30 cents each. There is very little halibut to be had, but what is the market is being received chiefly from about Bristol Island. Cod and haddock are coming in a little more abundantly and selling at 5 cents a pound.

URGES LAW TO JAIL BEATING TEACHERS, REDEEMING VOW

Washington, Aug. 2.—Little Willie Wilson was late for school at Blantyre, in Scotland, forty years ago and the schoolmaster soundly thrashed him for it. That day Willie took an oath that when he got to parliament he would pass a law making such behavior on the part of teachers a penal offence.

He never went to parliament, but in the house of representatives he took steps to make good his oath. As a representative from the Fifteenth Pennsylvania District, he dropped in the speaker's basket a bill making corporal punishment in the District of Columbia a serious offence.

AWARD OF $6 AND NO COSTS IN SUIT FOR $2,343

Interesting Developments May Arise From Application For Guardian

(Canadian Press)

In the case of Richmond Rochester of New York, vs. Miles E. Agar, Mr. Justice Lauder this morning gave a verdict for the plaintiff for $6 with no costs. The original claim was for about $2,343 for rope sold to the defendant by the plaintiff. About $1,883.47 of this amount was not disputed, and was paid over to the plaintiff. For the balance of the amount a set off was claimed, including $23.75 for alleged shortage in the quantity of rope received, and $683.78 the amount of a debt due Rochester, wife of Geo. McHenry, and sister of John E. McDonald, asking for the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the latter. The petition was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The hearing will be given a week ago, and the matter of costs was argued this morning, and His Honor gave his decision as previously mentioned.

Chancery Division

Before Mr. Justice McLeod in Chancery this morning, a summons was returned in the matter of John E. McDonald, lunatic, not so found, but adjournment was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The petition was made to consider an application of John A. Barry, appearing for the petitioner, Isabella McHenry, wife of Geo. McHenry, and sister of John E. McDonald, asking for the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the latter. The petition was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The hearing will be given a week ago, and the matter of costs was argued this morning, and His Honor gave his decision as previously mentioned.

Some very interesting developments will arise out of this case, as several conveyances made by John E. McDonald, lunatic, not so found, but adjournment was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The petition was made to consider an application of John A. Barry, appearing for the petitioner, Isabella McHenry, wife of Geo. McHenry, and sister of John E. McDonald, asking for the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the latter. The petition was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The hearing will be given a week ago, and the matter of costs was argued this morning, and His Honor gave his decision as previously mentioned.

WHO THREW FIRST QUESTION?

International Affair in the Police Court

—Nine Months for Women Prisoners

—Other Cases

Samuel Teopulos, a Greek, was arraigned in the police court this morning, charged with assaulting Paul E. McManus, who was charged with assaulting the Greek. The case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Magistrate REFUSES TO RELEASE MCCOY

London, Aug. 2.—"Kid" McCoy (Norman Selby), the boxer, was brought up again at the Bow street police court today and again remanded until August 8, when the papers connected with the case are expected to arrive from Belgium. The police magistrate once more refused to release by such an amount, but that the judge of the court, who had been given information from the people who had preferred the charge of alleged larceny, said that he was not prepared to release McCoy.

KILLED IN SAWMILL AT CHATHAM, N. B.

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 2.—This morning about five minutes to seven, before the mill whistle had blown for work to commence, Allan McDonald, of Chatham, was killed in a sawmill at Chatham. It seems that he was going from the mill to the yard and in some unknown manner he had been caught in the pillar shaft and was whirled around and so before the machinery could be stopped he had been killed. The deceased lived in Chatham, being millwright in Sinclair's at the time of his death. The deceased was survived by one brother, James J. of Bathurst, and the following children: Alexander, Chatham; Allan, who was working with him in Newcastle; Miss Minnie, Chatham; Miss S. G., student nurse in Somerville, Mass.; Miss Nellie, student nurse in Amherst, and Mrs. James Doyle of Jacques River.

THE FISH MARKET

Those who, through religious tendencies or force of habit, appreciate a fish dinner on Friday had a fairly wide variety to select from today as the market was well stocked with such kinds as are usually the favorite of the men of the sea. Although the season is rapidly passing and there was a plentiful supply of salmon at from 19 to 20 cents a pound today, and many of the stock were what are known as fiddlers, or small salmon. The source of supply was mostly local, both harbor and bay fishing having been very good this week, which was most gratifying, as the salmon run on the North Shore and about Newfoundland has ceased. The season for salmon locally ends on August 22. There were quite a number of "raker" mackerels on the market today selling at 30 to 35 cents each. The first of the run of fall eels was on hand today, bringing from 20 to 30 cents each. There is very little halibut to be had, but what is the market is being received chiefly from about Bristol Island. Cod and haddock are coming in a little more abundantly and selling at 5 cents a pound.

URGES LAW TO JAIL BEATING TEACHERS, REDEEMING VOW

Washington, Aug. 2.—Little Willie Wilson was late for school at Blantyre, in Scotland, forty years ago and the schoolmaster soundly thrashed him for it. That day Willie took an oath that when he got to parliament he would pass a law making such behavior on the part of teachers a penal offence.

He never went to parliament, but in the house of representatives he took steps to make good his oath. As a representative from the Fifteenth Pennsylvania District, he dropped in the speaker's basket a bill making corporal punishment in the District of Columbia a serious offence.

URGES LAW TO JAIL BEATING TEACHERS, REDEEMING VOW

Washington, Aug. 2.—Little Willie Wilson was late for school at Blantyre, in Scotland, forty years ago and the schoolmaster soundly thrashed him for it. That day Willie took an oath that when he got to parliament he would pass a law making such behavior on the part of teachers a penal offence.

URGES LAW TO JAIL BEATING TEACHERS, REDEEMING VOW

ANOTHER ARREST IN MURDER CASE

"Whitney Jack" Lewis Captured by New York Police at Fleischman

(Canadian Press)

New York, Aug. 2.—"Whitney Jack" Lewis, one of Big Jack Zelig's gun men, and of the four men accused of shooting down the gambler Herman Rosenthal, was given a third degree grilling today, to glean further information that would supply corroborations of the confession of "Big" Jack Rose, Harry Valon, and "Bridge" Weber, that Police Lieut. Becker sought the death of Rosenthal.

Lewis, whose real name is Frank Senden, was picked up yesterday on the station platform at Piquette, N. Y., just as he was about to take a train for the west. He was taken to Kingston and brought to this city this morning. The trip was without incident until the train drew into the terminal. There a band of six or seven East Side gangsters, headed over the gate separating the platform from the tracks, and started toward the train. Suddenly their eyes fell upon several headquarters detectives who had been sent across the river and the gangsters quickly backed into the station. No move was made to rescue the prisoner who was quickly taken to headquarters. There he was locked up to await the arrival of Police Commissioners Waldo and Dougherty. Lewis said that he was on the point of giving himself up as he heard the police wanted him. He would not say where he had been in hiding. The gunman declared that he could and would prove an alibi. He did not tell where he was. He would not say what he was doing at Fleischman, but reiterated that he was stopping at a "respectable place," and with "respectable people." Police officials at the station noted that he appeared to be a well-dressed man. Two of three detectives in the Lewis arrest remained behind. It is thought they are on the trail of other gunmen wanted in the case. The two other gunmen wanted are Harry Horowitz, otherwise "Gib the Blood," and "Lefty" Lewis. Lefty Lewis is said to have been in Boston Wednesday and later in Montreal.

GERMAN CITIZENS WERE VICTIMS OF MEXICAN REBELS

Not Americans as Before Supposed—Report Will be Made to German Ambassador

(Canadian Press)

Douglas, Ariz., Aug. 2.—John Hertling and Guido Shubert, the men hanged at Montevista, east of Kansas, Sonora, about a week ago, but whose bodies were not found until Tuesday, were natives of Germany, and subjects of that country, though Hertling had taken out his original citizenship papers in the United States. It is believed that he was a German subject at the time he was hanged.

Some very interesting developments will arise out of this case, as several conveyances made by John E. McDonald, lunatic, not so found, but adjournment was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The petition was made to consider an application of John A. Barry, appearing for the petitioner, Isabella McHenry, wife of Geo. McHenry, and sister of John E. McDonald, asking for the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the latter. The petition was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The hearing will be given a week ago, and the matter of costs was argued this morning, and His Honor gave his decision as previously mentioned.

Chancery Division

Before Mr. Justice McLeod in Chancery this morning, a summons was returned in the matter of John E. McDonald, lunatic, not so found, but adjournment was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The petition was made to consider an application of John A. Barry, appearing for the petitioner, Isabella McHenry, wife of Geo. McHenry, and sister of John E. McDonald, asking for the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the latter. The petition was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The hearing will be given a week ago, and the matter of costs was argued this morning, and His Honor gave his decision as previously mentioned.

Some very interesting developments will arise out of this case, as several conveyances made by John E. McDonald, lunatic, not so found, but adjournment was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The petition was made to consider an application of John A. Barry, appearing for the petitioner, Isabella McHenry, wife of Geo. McHenry, and sister of John E. McDonald, asking for the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the latter. The petition was made until next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The hearing will be given a week ago, and the matter of costs was argued this morning, and His Honor gave his decision as previously mentioned.

WHO THREW FIRST QUESTION?

International Affair in the Police Court

—Nine Months for Women Prisoners

—Other Cases

Samuel Teopulos, a Greek, was arraigned in the police court this morning, charged with assaulting Paul E. McManus, who was charged with assaulting the Greek. The case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Magistrate REFUSES TO RELEASE MCCOY

London, Aug. 2.—"Kid" McCoy (Norman Selby), the boxer, was brought up again at the Bow street police court today and again remanded until August 8, when the papers connected with the case are expected to arrive from Belgium. The police magistrate once more refused to release by such an amount, but that the judge of the court, who had been given information from the people who had preferred the charge of alleged larceny, said that he was not prepared to release McCoy.

KILLED IN SAWMILL AT CHATHAM, N. B.

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 2.—This morning about five minutes to seven, before the mill whistle had blown for work to commence, Allan McDonald, of Chatham, was killed in a sawmill at Chatham. It seems that he was going from the mill to the yard and in some unknown manner he had been caught in the pillar shaft and was whirled around and so before the machinery could be stopped he had been killed. The deceased lived in Chatham, being millwright in Sinclair's at the time of his death. The deceased was survived by one brother, James J. of Bathurst, and the following children: Alexander, Chatham; Allan, who was working with him in Newcastle; Miss Minnie, Chatham; Miss S. G., student nurse in Somerville, Mass.; Miss Nellie, student nurse in Amherst, and Mrs. James Doyle of Jacques River.

THE FISH MARKET

Those who, through religious tendencies or force of habit, appreciate a fish dinner on Friday had a fairly wide variety to select from today as the market was well stocked with such kinds as are usually the favorite of the men of the sea. Although the season is rapidly passing and there was a plentiful supply of salmon at from 19 to 20 cents a pound today, and many of the stock were what are known as fiddlers, or small salmon. The source of supply was mostly local, both harbor and bay fishing having been very good this week, which was most gratifying, as the salmon run on the North Shore and about Newfoundland has ceased. The season for salmon locally ends on August 22. There were quite a number of "raker" mackerels on the market today selling at 30 to 35 cents each. The first of the run of fall eels was on hand today, bringing from