Sheep and Swine Sale

Mr. J. G. Robertson, Live Stock Commissioner and Secretary of the Saskatchewan Sheep and Swine Breeders' Association, has sent out to the executive of these associa tions the following advance notice of sheep and swine sales to be held this fall at Regina and Saskatoon at the time of the Winter Fairs at

"At a joint meeting of the executive of the above associations it was despited to hold two sheep and swine sales this fall, one at Re gina during the last week of November at the time of the Winter Fair, probably on the 27th and 28th, and another at Saskatoon in the first week of December at the time of the Winter Fair there, possibly on the 4th and 5th. These sales will be well advertised and it is expected that a large number of buyers will attend them. An entry fee of 50e per-animal entered for the sale will be charged and all entries must be in the hands of the Secretary on or before October 1. 1919. So, if you are contemplating entering any animals, send in your entries in plenty of time. It is expected that upwards of one hundred and fifty purebred sheep and seventy-five purebred swine will be
