541 Main Street, - - - North End. Jimes Northrup Deposed as Head of His Family and Frank Boone Elected.

A few days ago a well known character named Frank Boone went to the central police station and was accompanied by the pretty little eight-year old daughter of James Northrup and complaint against James Northrup and complained that the head of the Northrup family was not looking after his home, was neglecting his wife and child, and was not only a drunkard but was seemingly jealous of Boone who was taken in as one of the family. When Boone got through with his tale of week he was told that the matter of the matter of the matter of the transportation commission. MARITIME BOARD OF TRADE DEALS WITH THE TRANSPORTATION QUESTION.

Lively Discussion Between Representatives From St.

AMHERST, Aug. 16-At this forenoon's session of the Maritime Board of Trade the following resolution moved last night. The money was then in his pocket. When he awoke this morning he found that some person had gone through his clothes and robbed him of his cattles accorded by M. G. Dewolfe:

"Whereas the sheep raising industry of the Maritime provinces is one that gives promise of very considerable development provided such pro m of his entire earnings. He also is necessary against sheep killing dogs him of his entire earnings. He also found that a Dutch sailor employed on the yacht had left the vessel in the early morning and suspicion quickly rested on the Dutchman. Mr. Jamison is very desirious of locating his money ages of dogs are in the opinion of this heard quite inadequate, and until and thinks if the sailor is found the money will also be obtained. He was looking for the supposed thief this morning and intended asking the police on a surrance of the industry increasing or becoming permanently profitable; therefore resolved that the Maritime Board of Trade resolved the cord its vote in favor of legislation which will meet the needs of the situ ation and that it also urge the enactment of the same at the earliest poss ble date."

Father Burke said that it was necessary, if any definite results were to be obtained from the passage of the resolutions, they should be followed by delegations, but there were no funds for the defraying of the personal expenses of the delegates and therefore many of those appointed could not attend.

A. M. Bell agreed with this and M. G. Dewolfe said that there never was a time when the members of the government paid so much attention to the resolutions of the Maritime Board of resolutions of the Maritime Board of ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 16-The war of terrorism which the fighting declared immediately after parliament was dissolved, seems now to have be gun in earnest. From all parts of the empire the telegraph brings the same story of attacks on police officials of all classes, accompanied in the major-ity of cases by plunder. The Polish rev-olutionists are especially active. There is a veritable reign of terror from the Vistula to the German frontier. Almost fifty cases of assassinations were reported early last night. The Novos Vhemya today heads its list of murders and other crimes "St. Bartholo-mew's Night in Poland." ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 16—The Official Messenger today prints a de-nial of the recent announcement that the Ropp commission had returned in-dictments against Lieut. General Stoessel, the commander of the Russian forces at Port Arthur. Lieut. General Fock who commanded the Fourth East Siberian division at Port Arthur and others.
