

Information Wanted

The following is a list of all the names of ministers who have passed away from Henry Alline's time until now, together with some laymen. As an appendix to the History of the Baptists of the Maritime Provinces, I have written very brief sketches of the lives of these departed ministers arranged in alphabetical order. It is probable that there is a number of names which I have not been able to find. I would ask as a favor that the readers of the MESSENGER AND VISITOR will read over this list and send me the names of any not found in it, together if possible, with the dates and place of their birth and ordination, the names of the churches they have served and the dates thereof, also the date and place of their deaths.

In addition to this I should like to have similar information about the ministers whose names are marked by a note of interrogation.

Will the friends please do this at once as the manuscript is already in the hands of the printer.

MOSE OBEYED ORDERS.

Readers of "Uncle Remus" will readily understand the devotion of his servants to Joel Chandler Harris, and the following story shows the faithfulness with which the family is served:

Mrs. Harris is a Canadian and sometimes spends the summer months in her former home. During his wife's absence one summer Mr. Harris was amazed upon returning home early one afternoon to see the old gardener going from flower bed to flower bed in the pouring rain, umbrella in one hand, watering pot in the other, carefully sprinkling the plants.

"Mose, why on earth are you watering the plants while it is raining?" he asked. "Well, sah," was the reply as Mose scratched his head in perplexity. "I didn't 'xactly 'pear to know what ter do 'bout de rain, 'kase, you see, Mis' Haryes done tole me to water de flowers 'ev'ry day en not ter fergit er single time. You see, sah, she ain't mek no 'lowance 'er de rain, en water 'em 'ev'ry day I is twel she come back; 'kase dem's my orders, sah!"—New York Herald.
