Dr. Chase Restores

THE OLD PEOPLE

By means of his great Blood Bullder and Nerve Invigorator, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Evidence from a lady who was work or sleep.

Mrs Margaret Iron, of Tower Hill, NB, writes: "My nerves were so weak I couldn't walk twice the length of the house I couldn't work or sleep and my hands trembled so I couldn't carry a pint of water from one table to the other. I thought there was no help for me, If I read a chapter at night or wrote a letter my nerves would be on edge and sleep was impossible.

Since using five boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food my nerves are fully restored. I can walk a mile without inconvenience, and though 76 years of age and quite fleshy I do my own work and considerable sewing, knitting and reading besides. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food did me a world of good."

The weaknesses of old age are due to k of vitality. The blood becomes thin and watery and the nerves cry out, for more nourishment by means of pains and aches in the bones, through the back and limbs.

What old people need to brace them up and put new life in their systems is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the greatest restorer Chase's Nerve Food, the greatest restorer of the century.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food can be used with most excellent results by any one in the family. For the pale, weak, run down mother, for the brain tired father and for the grandparents, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a tonic and invigorator of incalculable worth; 50 cents a box, at all dealers or by mail from Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto. Book on nervous diseases tree.

Asthma, bonchitis, creup and all coughs and colds are relieved and cured by Dr. Chase's syrup of linseed and turpentine, 25 cents a bottle. Family size, three times as much, 60 cents.
