Among those returning were: Messrs. Wm. H. McQuade, R. J. Wilkins, S. W. Wilkins, F. H. Foster, Martin Dolan, Walter Carrall, J. S. Coughlan, Fred Flaherty and Unwick McKelvie. They were all immensely pleased with the tournament as a whole, although naturally disappointed at the hard luck which befell the St. John boxers. Both were sick as the result of a very rough trip, and it was against a doctor's advice that Money entered the ring at all.

HACK BETTER THAN GOTCH?

Dr. B. F. Roller, Seattle, Wash., one of the leading heavyweight wrestlers of the country, wants to set himself right: "At various times I have been quoted and pretty much misquoted as to my opinions of Frank Gotch and Geo. Hackenschmidt, and wish you would set me right from my own hand. I don't want the public or either of the men mentioned to misunderstand me. "One prominent paper said I was knocking Gotch. Another said I must have fussed things with him, because last year I said he could beat any man in the world, and now I say that Hackenschmidt is the greatest. "To begin with, I never knocked Gotch in my life, but on the contrary have had nothing but pleasant things to say about him. When I said I thought Gotch was the best wrestler in the world, I told the truth. I think right now that he is the most scientific wrestler in the world, and certainly the best of the Americans.

DICK EGAN, RED STAR

Dick Egan plays second base for Cincinnati. Last season he finished fourth among the National League second basemen and accumulated a batting average of .245 in 131 games.

AUSTRALIAN WRESTLER ISSUES AN ODD CHALLENGE TO JOHNSON

Clarence Weber, Australia's champion heavyweight wrestler and strong man, is out with a challenge to Jack Johnson, the world's heavyweight boxing champion. Weber doesn't want to meet the negro champion in a scheduled 20 round battle in the square circle, but says he will try conclusions with the colored man, wrestling against boxing.

In a statement to Australian papers Weber declares that it should not be taken for granted that Johnson can defeat any white man because he knocked out Jim Jeffries. The Australian contends that if it had not been straight fighting and not under the Queensbury rules, Jeffries would have been an easy winner.

Weber wants a finish match with Johnson. He stipulates that Johnson will wear boxing gloves, while he (Weber) will fight with bare hands. There must be no biting or kicking. "I am willing to go to a finish and am ready for Johnson any time," declared the Australian.

LONGBOAT'S RECORD TO BE BROKEN?

Boston, Mass., April 16.—Upon the weather and road conditions next Wednesday, patriots dare depend. It is believed the success of the fourth assault upon Tom Longboat's record time of the Boston Athletic Association's annual Marathon race of 25 miles from Ashland to Boston. The coming 15th annual renewal of this classic event already has such an unusually high grade field of runners that the mark set by the Indian in 1907—two hours twenty-four minutes and 24 seconds is believed to be seriously threatened.

Up to tonight 131 athletes have signified their intention of starting. Two former winners of this classic of a man running races are among the entries for Wednesday's renewal. Sammy Miller, of Yonkers, N. Y., who has been a competitor nearly every year since his victory in 1902, and Henri Renaud, the Nashua, N. H. mill hand who was a dark horse on a sweetering day two years ago.

The Indian runners will be Mike Thomas, of Lennox, P. E. I.; Andrew Sockalexis, of Old Town, N. S. garrison of Louis Sockalexis, the old time major league baseball player; Charles M. Honycaust, of Onedda, N. Y.; and the Canadian delegation includes James J. Corkery, of Toronto, thirty last year; Alfred Rodgers, a husky gunner, from the Halifax, N. S. garrison; Dan Sheridan, young McCormack, of Toronto, and John Monaghan and Gordon Wolfe, of Dartmouth, N. S.

The course this year will be identical with that of past races, starting at Stevens' Corner, Ashland and ending at the B. A. A. club in Boston.

JOHNSON MUST LAY TERM OUT

San Francisco, Cal., April 15.—Jack Johnson, colored champion heavyweight pugilist, will serve the full term of the jail sentence given for speeding his automobile. Judge Treadwell on information today that Johnson had been accorded privileges not granted to other prisoners, reconsidered his decision and sentenced Johnson to the full term of the sentence. Johnson was to have been set free tomorrow morning.

THE BOXING GAME IN ONTARIO

Ottawa, April 16.—Billy Allen, champion featherweight of Canada, is to appear in Toronto on May 5th. Tom Flanagan and other Toronto boxing magnates have been seeking Bill's services for some time and just about signed him for a match with young Otto. Billy will probably fight two or three battles at Toronto. He is also to appear at Hamilton in the near future, after which he will return to Syracuse for a long string of fights. This will be Allen's first appearance in Toronto since he won the Canadian championship there several years ago. Bill has been training in the capital and was pulling hard for Jimmie Freeman to win the Canadian amateur boxing bouts at Toronto.

HALIFAX RUNNERS FOR BOSTON

Special to The Standard. Halifax, April 16.—Alfred Rogers, the speedy Chebuto A. C. runner left tonight for Boston where he is to compete in the Boston Marathon. He is in excellent condition and his admirers expect him to make a good showing.

RACING INDICTMENTS DISMISSED

Norfolk, Va., April 15.—All indictments returned by the Norfolk County grand jury for alleged violations of the Virginia anti-gambling laws at the Jamestown race track were dismissed by Justice Carmine tonight.

THIS TERRIER IS KIDS' FRIEND

SAM LAVENDER AND HIS FRIENDS.

The dog is Sam Lavender. He is a famous bull terrier, owned in England by E. T. Pimm, of Waltham Green. Every year this dog is shown on the bench and invariably wins considerable money. And every year his owner devotes the money to brightening the lives of the kiddies of Fulham with a banquet, at which the handsome terrier is host. At the last banquet the terrier was presented with an illuminated address to commemorate the occasion.

RACE FOR THE WORLD'S BALL CHAMPIONSHIP IS HARD ON THE NERVES

Two years ago when Detroit was a few points from Philadelphia and stood a good chance of losing to the Athletics, the team was playing in Washington after a series in the Quaker City. Cantillon had saved Walter Johnson for two weeks and sent the big Swede against Detroit. The Tigers had counted on taking four from Washington. Johnson beat them. Walking past the White House about 10 o'clock that night a member of the team noticed a familiar figure standing at the curbstone, gazing at the stars. The familiar player looked petrified. The player watched him for a while, then addressed him. There was no response. He shouted, and the man leaped three feet into the street. The man who was gazing at the stars was George Moriarty, regarded as one even temperature. Moriarty had been standing there for nearly half an hour, eating peanuts and getting relaxation by stargazing.

Resembled a Nervous Wreck. In these final games Moriarty came as near resembling a nervous wreck as a human being ever did. On third Moriarty was constantly clawing the earth or ball like a wild, caged beast. He shook like an aspen leaf and his answers were at times as far removed from the subject as you could have them.

Moriarty is simply an example. Other players showed the strain in a different way, but the strain showed in all of them. It is part of the game the public does not see or know about. It is that which cuts short the career of all the ball players.

A few months can make a big difference in a ball club; not alone "can" but "do." This assertion does not refer to the development of individual and team work; in this instance the subject is the disposition of the men. It is all lovely and peaceful and delightful in the spring of the year; five months later the game is talking its dues.

At this time the ball player has little to worry him, except in a few instances where jobs are at stake. An average of seven out of nine members of every big league team are sure of their jobs; or feel certain enough to retain the positions not to worry about them.

THE VERY LAST WORD ON THE GAME OF BASEBALL.

The last word? It means that a bunch of the highest experts in the world will tell in The Standard tomorrow, all there is to the fanciest kind of glib edged baseball playing.

How does this sound for a starter? Tomorrow Manager Jim McAleer of the Washington American League team, the greatest and killed home runs, will tell the fans and all the aspiring young ball players of St. John how to play the outfield. Advice from McAleer is a college education in baseball.

Then one of these days the sport department will have a signed article by Manager Muggsey McGraw, of the New York Glanis, and on another day Manager Hugh Jennings will write on one of the most interesting and spectacular features of baseball; a feature that he himself knows more about than any other living player.

AND THESE ARE NOT ALL. Other men just as high as the experts named will contribute to this remarkable baseball symposium. Remember, Manager McAleer's article tomorrow on how to play the outfield.

CHICAGO FIGHTER INDICTED.

Bangor, Me., April 12.—Jack Leon, Chicago wrestler and boxer, was indicted on charges of manslaughter and engaging in an illegal fight by the grand jury. The charge is for the death of Billy Dunning of Millinocket, who died 24 hours after having been knocked out by Leon in a boxing match at Presque Isle last November. Arthur Johnson, alias Howard White, who escaped from Houlton jail after falling turnkey Smart with an iron bar, was indicted on the charge of assault with intent to kill and for breaking, entering and larceny. He pleaded guilty.

MUGSEY McGraw has spoken about that Baltimore deal, saying he was a free agent, having been given his release by the Baltimore stockholders, when he made his deal with days of Brush to manage the Giants.

ALFIE SHRUBB WAS DEFEATED IN FAST RACE

New York, April 15.—William Quael, of Alexandria Bay, N. Y., defeated Alfie Shrubb, of England, holder of the world's running record for ten miles, in a fast ten mile indoor race at the Twelfth Regiment Armory to-night. No records were broken. The time was 51:55. The pace was fast and exciting at every moment of the race.

At no time until the final spurt were the runners separated by more than ten feet. They passed and re-passed one another in short bursts of speed at intervals. Quael made a terrific spurt at the beginning of the eighth lap of the last mile and finished 20 yards ahead. The first mile was run in 10:40. The record time for ten miles, as held by Shrubb, is 50:40.

CANADIAN RUNNERS IN THE HUB

Boston, Mass., April 15.—The runners who will represent the Irish-Canadian A. C. of Toronto, in the B. A. A. Marathon next Wednesday arrived in town yesterday. They are James J. Corkery, who finished third a year ago, and who is looked upon favorably this year; Eugene M. McCormick and Sandy Begley. McCormick is rated as a good man across the border, while Begley has yet to prove his ability over the long route.

All three runners looked to be in excellent condition, especially Corkery. While they were reluctant to make any claims as to their prowess, it was evident that they came to Boston confident of returning with victory perched upon their banner. The runners reached on quarters on the course near the start and will finish their training in the vicinity of Wellesley.

James Geogantas, of the Y. M. C. A., a Greek, entered for the run yesterday. Geogantas has done considerable running and those who have watched him at work in the Y. M. C. A. gym in the winter months and upon the roads in the vicinity of Neponset say he is running well.

F. J. Madden, of the South Boston A. C., who ran a dead heat for first place with E. L. Chen, of Lynn in the Cathedral Y. M. C. A. 10 mile cross country run a week ago, yesterday said he would compete in the B. A. A. race. Madden is in fine condition and will carry the hopes of the S. B. A. C. contingent.

The Glapp memorial association of North Weymouth will be represented by F. H. Jones, of North Weymouth. Jones is practically a newcomer to the long distance game, but he has shown form in his training that warranted entering for the run.

Roy K. Wentworth, of the Prospect club of Lynn also entered yesterday. Wentworth has before competed in the B. A. A. run. This year, he says, he will be conspicuous from start to the finish.

Manager George V. Brown receives some odd communications in his mail regarding the Marathon race, but perhaps the strangest that he has yet to receive was the entry blank from some unknown runner of Haverhill. Yesterday the blank was forwarded, accompanied by the entrance fee of $1, but the intending competitor forgot to sign his name. No. 120, therefore, was allotted to ———, 38 Hall street, Weymouth. He will probably put in an appearance in due time.

Other entries received yesterday were those of Bertram G. Green, of the Wellington A. A., of Roxbury; F. J. Harster, of the Pawtucket Y. M. C. A., and E. F. Huttergren, of Woburn, bringing the total up to 125.
