FOXES

This Company now owns five pairs of Silver Black Foxes, Class A, obtained from the following ranches:

- Two pairs from the Magie S. B. Fox Co., Ltd.
- One pair from the Riverside Fox Co., Ltd.
- One pair from the Diamond Fox Co., Ltd.
- One pair from the Maritime Fox Co., Ltd.

These Companies are all among this year's highest dividend payers and the foxes of the Premier Co. should therefore be very prolific.

RANCH

A new ranch is now being built for these foxes after the most approved modern methods. Much has of late been learned in regard to the building of ranches and dens. Investors in this Company may rest assured that their foxes will have up-to-date and sanitary quarters.

Thomas Moyle will take care of the foxes. The well-known "Peerless Co." which last year paid a dividend of 900 p. c. had its foxes under his care.

All expenses in regard to the ranching of the foxes and their young are assumed by Mr. Moyle for seven per cent. of each year's increase for a period of three years.

SPECIAL OFFER

It is the aim and intention of the Company to have ten pairs of foxes in its ranch this fall. In order to do this they wish to place the present issue of stock as soon as possible. They therefore offer to those investing on or before July 15th, 1914, a discount of ten per cent. on above capitalization which places the foxes at $16,200 a pair.

Those who wish to take advantage of our special offer should apply at once to President Thomas Moyle, Central Bedeque, P. E. I. or Secretary-Treasurer John C. Batlem, M. D., Bedeque, P. E. I.

FOX RANCHERS RESPONSIBLE

Promoters of Compsny awarded damages—Features of interest to all Fox people.

One of the most interesting fox cases tried in the Supreme Court since the industry was established in P. E. Island, was that of B. Carruthers and others against B. A. Taylor and J. W. Carruthers of Montague. The plaintiffs in the suit reside in Saskatchewan and organized a company in Leathburn, Sask., known as the Leathburn Fox Co. They purchased from the plaintiffs in July 1912 a female fox under a contract by which it was provided amongst other things that the defendants would mate the female fox so sold with a fox of their own and provide the produce between the plaintiff and the defendants. It was further provided by the agreement that if anything should happen to the fox purchased by the plaintiff, that the defendants would lend to the plaintiff a female fox until such time as the plaintiffs obtained their share of a litter. It was contended by the plaintiffs that they never have received their share of the litter, and on the part of the defendant it was claimed that the female fox did produce a litter which died immediately after being born. The defendant, Taylor, who had charge of the ranch in which the foxes were, contended that the litter was born alive and that this was a fulfillment of the contract. The plaintiff by the plaintiff who contended first that the mother of the foxes died without having produced any live litter, and that in any event there was no litter available from which they receive their share of same. The defendants, John W. Carruthers, did not contest the suit, but conceded that there was a breach of contract on the part of himself and his co-defendant and asserted that he was willing to pay his share of the damages. An interlocutory judgment by default was obtained against him. He was the principal witness on behalf of the plaintiff against his co-defendant, B. A. Taylor, who contested the suit, claiming that he was not liable. Among the witnesses examined on the case were Hon. Charles Dalton, Dr. Ross of Charlottetown, R. W. Stewart, a leading fox man, J. W. Carruthers and R. A. Taylor. The case was tried before Chief Justice Sir Wilfrid Sullivan and a jury at Georgetown. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,000 for breach of contract on the part of the defendant.

A TALE OF A FOX.

An amusing incident not unknown in the fox industry, occurred in Sackville's numerous fox companies. A blue fox belonging to one of the Sackville numerous fox companies gave birth to twelve little ones.

Shortly after their birth, the mother who apparently possesses no true motherly instincts, or possibly hurried from excitement, was found to have destroyed three of these valuable little animals. Later the management held an indignation meeting notwithstanding this was the most sacred day of the week, but there was no time to lose, and something had to be done; it was therefore decided that the nine remaining foxes must have a true and faithful mother. Various members of the company were dispatched to different localities and the country was scoured for miles, to procure wet nurses to do the duties required of their unnatural mother. In
