St. Stephen
St. Stephen, Jan. 30.—Oddfellow's Hall was the scene of a very delightful event on Tuesday evening of this week, when the St. Andrew's Society and friends celebrated Burns' Night in their usual happy style. During the early part of the evening a very enjoyable program was presented to the audience at the opening of which the President of the Society, Mr. D. F.
Maxwell read several greetings from other societies and a poem written by a lady who requested that her name be withheld. This seemed too bad, as it was a poem to which one might be proud of having one's name appended.
The stirring accompaniment of the audience with several Scotch songs, and Miss Betty Coleman charmed everybody with her Scotch reading. A very interesting and eloquent address on "Burns" was given by Rev. Mr. Smith of the Union Church, Calais. Then the veteran dancer, Mr. Joseph Mc-Vay, did an intricate Scotch dance to the stirring accompaniment of the pipes, and proved beyond question that he was as young as ever. Mrs.
Sears then sang "Scots Wha Hae," and the President requested the audience to stand and join with Mrs. Sears in one verse of the National Song of the Scots. The singing of Auld Lang Syne brought the formal program to close and a close and the hall was immediately cleared for dancing, which continued till the " wee sma' hours." At the bridge tables the prizes were won by Mrs. F. A. Dunton and Mr. Thomas Toal. Delicious refreshments were served and it was generally conceded that the St. Andrews Society had, scored another splendid success.
Mrs. Lizzie Haycock gave a very delightful bridge party at her home on High street, Calais on Monday evening of this week.
Miss Ina Calhoun was called to her home in St. Martins last week by the serious illness of her mother.
Mrs. Hardy N. Gannon was at home to her friends on Tuesday afternoon of this week, and in spite of the inclement weather this popular young bride
