Fines and forfeitures may be recovered before one Justice.

LXI. And be it enacted, That all fines and forfeitures inflicted by this Act or which shall be inflicted by virtue of any rule, order or by-law to be made in pursuance thereof (of which rule, order or by-law when produced, all Justices are hereby required to take notice,) the levying and recovering of which fines and forfeitures are not particularly herein directed shall upon proof of the offence before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the District, either by the confession of the party or parties or by the oath or affirmation of any one credible witness (which oath or affirmation such Justice or Justices are hereby empowered and required to administer without fee or reward) be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels by warrant under the hand and seal or hands and seals of such Justice or Justices, and all such respective fines, forfeitures or penalties by this Act imposed and inflicted or authorized to be imposed and inflicted, the application whereof is not hereinbefore particularly directed, shall be paid into the hands of the treasurer or receiver of the monies to be raised by virtue of this Act, and shall be applied and disposed of for the use of the said Railway or undertaking, and the over plus of the money raised by such distress and sale, after deducting the penalty and the expenses of the levying and recovering thereof, shall be rendered to the owner of the goods so distrained and sold, and for want of sufficient goods and chattels whereof to levy the said penalty and expenses, the offender shall be sent to the common gaol for there to remain without bail or mainprize for such term not exceeding one month as such Justice or Justices shall think proper unless such penalty or forfeiture and all expenses attending the same shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

Appeal to Quarter or General Sessions.

LXII. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by anything done by any Justice of the Peace in pursuance of this Act, every such person or persons may, within four calendar months after the doing thereof, appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the General Quarter or General Sessions to be holden in and for the Suits to be brought within six months.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That if any action or suit shall be brought or commenced against any person or persons for anything done or to be done in pursuance of this Act, or in the execution of the powers and authorities or the orders and directions hereinbefore given or granted, every such action or suit shall be brought or commenced within six calendar months next after the
