

its duration. Upper Canada from the first day of March, next after such day; and every such by-law shall continue in force, in Lower Canada until the first day of May, and in Upper Canada until the first day of March, next after the repeal thereof.

If there be a By-law of a local municipality in force.

2. If at the time of the coming into force of any by-law of a County Council passed under authority of this Act, there be in force within any municipality forming part of such county, any other by-law passed under authority of this Act, the operation of such last mentioned by-law shall be and remain suspended for so long as the by-law of the County Council continues in force,—but shall revive, in default of express repeal thereof, should the by-law of the County Council be repealed.

3. No such by-law shall be repealed within the full term of one year from the date of the passing thereof.

No license to be issued while it remains in force.

5. In Lower Canada, from the day of delivery to him of such copy, and for so long thereafter as such by-law continues in force, no Collector of Inland Revenue shall issue any license to take effect within the county, city, town, township, parish or incorporated village, affected by such by-law,—either for keeping an inn, tavern, or other house or place of public entertainment, and for retailing whisky or any spirituous liquors, wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, or other vinous or fermented liquors,—or for keeping an inn, tavern, or other house or place of public entertainment, and for retailing wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, or other vinous or fermented liquors, but not brandy, rum, whisky, or other spirituous liquors,—or for vending or retailing in any store or shop, brandy, rum, whisky, or other spirituous liquors, and wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, or other vinous or fermented liquors, in a quantity not less than three half-pints at any one time; and no person shall be liable by reason of his not having therein any license of such description, to the penalty of fifty dollars, imposed by the twenty-second section of the Act chaptered six of the Consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada, intituled “An Act respecting tavern keepers and the sale of intoxicating liquors”.

Nor any penalty for want of a license, under Con. Stat. L. C., c. 6.

The same in U.C.

2. In Upper Canada, from the like day and for the like period, no Collector of Inland Revenue shall issue, to take effect within the like limits,—either any tavern license, that is license for the retail of spirituous, fermented or other manufactured liquors to be drunk in the inn, ale-house, beer-house or other house of public entertainment in which the same is sold,—or any shop license, that is license for the retail of such liquors in shops, stores or places other than inns, ale-houses, beer-houses or places of public entertainment.

Licenses already issued to become void.

Repayment of duty on such licenses

6. If on or before the day of such delivery to the Collector of Inland Revenue, there should have been issued any such license for the year to commence on the first day of May, or first day of March, (as the case may be,) then next to follow, the same shall thereupon, ipso facto, become wholly null and void; and the Collector of Inland Revenue shall forthwith notify the person holding the same, to that effect, and shall be held to pay back to him such moneys as he may have paid, by way of duty or otherwise, therefor.

While the by-law is in force no lot of intoxicating liquor to be sold on any pretence, for any but medical or sacramental purposes.

7. From the day on which such by-law takes effect for other purposes, aforesaid, and for so long thereafter as the same continues in force, no person, unless it be for exclusively medicinal or sacramental purposes, or for bona fide use in some art, trade or manufacture, shall, within such county, city, town, township, parish, or incorporated village, by himself, his clerk, servant, or agent, expose or keep for sale, or directly or indirectly, sell or barter, or in consideration of the purchase of any other property give, to any other person, any spirituous or other intoxicating liquor, or any mixed liquor capable of being used as a beverage, and part of which is spirituous or otherwise intoxicating.
