

TORONTO GARRISON'S OUTING ON THANKSGIVING DAY

After the Field Day Exercises, the full garrison was reviewed by General Cotton, D.O.C., M.D. No. 2. Ten thousand spectators witnessed this event.

The Maxim Gun of the Q.O.R. at work.

The small boy gathering cartridge shells.

Photographs by Pringle & Booth.

The King Edward Institute, Montreal. Erected by Col. Burland and opened from England by telegraph and cable by His Majesty.

Sir George Drummond presiding at the opening ceremonies of Col. Burland's gift to Montreal. Sir Charles Fitzpatrick is seated.

Photographs by Gleason.