

Low Scoring Battles at Chapman Field

by Mark Savoie

me

pirit

imed

eas-

Ill

EE!*

The UNB Red Shirts continued their drive for the right achieved fruition in the 41st to host the AUAA Soccer minute on a long header by Championships with two strong Stewart Galloway. Galloway performances at Chapman Field accepted a pass from Male Shirts shut out the Dalhousie Oakes and headed it over the Dal Tigers 1-0 and then the next day keeper into the empty net. battled to a scoreless draw against the Acadia Axemen.

wake up, dominating the Tigers throughout the rest of the game.

The UNB pressure finally last weekend. On Saturday, the Athlete-Of-The-Week Jamie

The second half also had the Shirts dominating play. The Red Shirts began the However, despite several good weekend slowly. The Dal Tigers scoring opportunities they were were all over the Shirts for the kept from further scoring by the first twenty minutes, and in the Dalhousie squad. In the final ten fifth minute rang a corner kick minutes, Dalhousie finally off the cross bar. After surviving mounted some pressure, but this scare and others in this first keeper Geoff Harvey didn't face held on for the win.

Acadia travelled to Fredericton hot on the heels of a victory over used their strong midfield to stifle the Mt. Allison Mounties the day any UNB pressure towards the only a tie against the Shirts to play also prevented them from Accordingly, they played without action around the goals. thought of a win and were more than content to accept a tie. This game's conclusion when the two games. The first of these playoffs.

celebrating the result.

Throughout the game Acadia before. As a result they needed goal. However, their style of gain ground over the Dal Tigers mounting any offensive threats. in their fight for the final playoff Thus the game was played almost spot in the East Division. entirely at midfield with little few minutes the Shirts seemed to any real challenges and the Shirts Acadia keeper let out with a cheer will be tomorrow at 2:00 PM and will be followed by Sunday's game also 2:00 PM. Both games will be played at Chapman Field.

> Jamie Pollock sat this weekend out. This made it five games in a row since injuring his knee against Mt. Allison. His knee is healing nicely, according to Coach Gary Brown, but it was deemed safer to sideline him for This weekend the Red Shirts another weekend to make sure was particularly evident at the host the Memorial Beothuks for that he is fully recovered for the

Red Harriers

by Tim Lynch

The only remaining crosscountry meet for the UNB Lady and Red Harriers is the AUAA championship at St. FX, October 28. It is then that both teams hope to improve upon last weekend's showing in Halifax where the host Dalhousie squads captured first place in both the women's and men's divisions. Each UNB team finished second.

Lady Harrier Michelle Cormier placed second overall in the women's division. She was closely followed by fellow Harrier Felicia Greer who was fourth. Lucy Smith of the Lady Tigers finished first overall. Rounding out the top ten were three more UNB runners. Tracey the dominant team thus far this title.

Shanks was eighth, Gisele Gallibois finished ninth, and Heather Eagle placed tenth. The Lady Harriers' point total was 33 while Dalhousie runners managed a 22 points over the five kilometre race.

Rod Clarke placed third in the 10 KM men's race to lead the Red Harriers to their second place showing. They had a 50 point total while Dalhousie had only 36. The race was won by Allen Bard of Moncton. Garn Pomeroy was the other UNB runner to place in the top ten. He finished season. Heading into next in seventh position. As well, weckend's AUAA meet, they are UNB's Bill Shiel and Brad considered to be the favorites. Daniels placed fourteenth and The Red and Lady Harriers will fifteenth, respectively.

The Dalhousie squad has been they may lay claim to an AUAA be training hard next week so that

Todd Slaney swoops in on Acadia's keeper

Michelle Cormier, from Fredericton, NB has been chosen as the Female Athlete-of-theweek. Captain of the Lady Harriers cross country team, AUAA all-star, and a recent member of the New Brunswick Summer Canada Games Team '89, Michelle helped propel her team to a 2nd place finish over the weekend at a meet hosted by Dalhousie. Michelle, herself, place 2nd in the conference in a course, showing that rapid According to coach Hull, quality performance with poise." 'Michelle is serving notice that she and the Lady Harriers are finest race in two seasons."

Jamie Oakes, 21, from Woodstock, NB has been named the UNB Athlete-of-the-week. The fourth year Physical Education student had a strong defensive weekend for the soccer Red Shirts as they won one game: UNB 1 over DAL 0, and tied another: UNB 0, ACA 0. Jamie plays left full back and has not been beat by any winger in the league to this date. He is one of the reasons the Red Shirts time of 10:02 over the 5km have such a low goals against average. According to coach progress is being made. Brown, Jamie's weekend was, "a

Red Sticks Battle for First

by Kelly Craig

Last Wednesday, the UNB Red Sticks went to Moncton to battle the UdeM Blue Angels. In what was expected to be an easy win for UNB turned out to be a battle for a tie.

Angela Cormier scored a goal a teams. piece in the second half to tie

UdeM.

Mary's Huskies. St. Mary's is their heels and this game could be presently ranked second behind the deciding game. Should UNB UNB in the AUAA league. This travel to St. Mary's for the game will be a big game for both AUAA's, the girls will have to teams as the winner of this game be at their best. St. Mary's plays will undoubtedly have home field on an astroturf surface which The UdeM Blue Angels took advantage for next weekend's usually causes problems for an early lead against UNB. It AUAA's. Last season SMU UNB. wasn't until the second half of the barely got by UNB for the

the team travels to St. FX. number one in the AUAA. Their hope to gain home field On Sunday, UNB will travel record stands at 5 wins, 0 losses, advantage in the AUAA's.

to Halifax to take on the St. and 4 ties. St. Mary's is hot on UNB's final regular season game that UNB came back to tie AUAA title so home field game will be played on October it at 2-2. Joan Robère and advantage is important to both 24 at Moncton. UNB will play the UdeM team at 4 PM in UNB has played SMU twice Moncton. This is an important before and both games ended in a game for Moncton as they are This weekend will see the tie. Both teams will be at their playing for a spot in the playoffs. Sticks take on two of their best and will be looking for a UNB will undoubtedly have to be toughest opponents. Saturday, win. Presently, UNB is ranked at their best this weekend if they