

427044-5

Ottawa, 31st July, 1918.

SIR:-

Referring to your letter of the 22nd instant relative to your account for driving Mr. Macadam to Thunderchild's Reserve; I beg to state that the Department has allowed you the same rate as was paid before for similar trips to the above reserve, which is considered fair and reasonable. With regard to your claim of $6.00 for time waiting for the Doctor the Department is advised that he only spent two hours on the reserve and your charge is excessive.

Your obedient servant,

Dan Hughes Esq.,
Turtleford, Sask.

D. W. Leach
Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
