

Sir:-

I
 letter of the 2nd who is managing the who took over the
 from Mr. John Marshall dues and a sworn statement

In reply I may say Indians are interested to the in the form of dues on this timber immediately take every precaution to see dues are paid. You should first satisfy yourself that the company are reliable and determine is still timber remaining to be cut.

You are in a position to protect this transaction and the Department will look to you to ensure proper and prompt payment of the dues.

If there is at all any indication on the part of the Company to default in the matter, advise the Department immediately.

Your obedient servant,

A. Ogletree Esq. Secretary.
