

- Wheat crop of 1915, cause of increase in, 16.
- Wheat growing, 16; its origin in Western Canada, 88; chief resource of the West, 89; business prosperity dependent on its amount, 89; labor problem in, 94.
- Wind-breaks on farm, utility of, 94.
- Woman, different in mind from man, 55; her gentleness, 56; moral influence, 53; privilege to soften harsher nature of man, 56; driven into business by commercialism, 52; care to be taken of these, 52; in poverty, 53; marks of poverty and anxiety visible in poor, 50; home life to be secured to all women, 61; no dower rights in property of farm homesteads, 62; political capacity of, 53, 62; utilities of single state, 57, 58.
- Worldliness, 81.
- Youth, unfair treatment of in business, 50.
- Youthfulness, 80.