

shall become due on the election of a member, and each subsequent payment twelve months thereafter. If any member shall fail to pay his annual fee within three months after same has become due, registered notice to his last known address shall be sent him by the Secretary, and if the fee be not paid within thirty days after such notification, the defaulter may be struck off the roll of membership by resolution of the Executive Council.

RESIGNATIONS.

All resignations of office or membership shall be in writing addressed to the Secretary, and shall be submitted by him at the next meeting of the Executive Council, or at the first meeting of a Standing Committee competent to deal with same.

All dues must be paid in full before a resignation can be considered.

EXPULSION.

Any member may be adjudicated upon by the Executive Council if charged in writing with conduct unbecoming a member of the Association. If, in the opinion of a quorum of the Executive Council, action should be taken thereon, the President, or in his absence one of the Vice-Presidents, shall appoint a committee of five to investigate the charges made. The Committee with due diligence shall report in writing if the charges are sustained or not. The report having been considered by the Executive Council, the member so charged shall be notified in writing at least ten days before final action by the Executive Council, by registered letter to his last known address, to appear at the next meeting of the Executive Council to defend himself. The Executive Council may, by a majority vote present at such meeting, suspend a member for a period of time or expel on a two-thirds vote.
