

A Lookout Tower on Devil's Mountain in the big forest district of Quebec Province patrolled by the Lower Ottawa Forest Protective Association. The rangers from this lofty point can detect a smudge in the valleys very quickly. They immediately telephone to the rangers nearest the point and inform them of the danger.