

co-education, are learning to have a clearer understanding, and a greater respect for each other, intellectually and morally. The world is full of needs, replete with problems, and demands men and women, who are imbued with hopes, enthusiasm, with well-trained active minds, yet withal, charitable, large-hearted, purposeful, a finer, greater, type of manhood and womanhood united by a community of interests, their destiny the evolvment of mankind.