

22. All must receive the mark of Antichrist in the right hand and on the forehead. That is, they must bring their work and their will in submission to the will of Antichrist.—v:16.

23. No business can be carried on without the trade mark of Antichrist. He is the great "boss."

The name of the beast is the "number of a man." The true reading is, not, a man, but, "the number of man," man considered as a whole.

That number is, 6,6,6.—v:18.

7 is the number of Christ. He always spoke in sevens and of sevens.

7 is the number of fulness and, therefore, is the name of Christ; for, he is the fulness of the godhead bodily.—Colossians, 2:9.

7 is the number of the Christian; it is the number of completeness, and the Christian is said to be "complete" in Christ.—Colossians, 2:10.

6 is the number this side of 7.

As 7 is fulness, completeness, perfection, 6 is this side, or short of fulness, completeness, perfection.

Man, as man, is not complete, he is not perfect, he falls short, as it is written:

"For all have sinned and COME SHORT of the glory of God."—Romans, 3:23.

3 is, as well as 8, the number of resurrection.

Although this man, the Antichrist, professes a resurrection, he cannot attain unto the PER-
