LAURIER'S "ARMS."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier described the Ontario Government as his right arm, and there is no doubt that he regards the Hon. Mr. Parent as the left. The old-time Liberals cannot be looking with favor on these two members of Sir Wilfrid's political body.

The right arm, which agreed to "hand over the goods" at the Dominion election, failed to carry out the contract. Now it is out of business. If Sir Wilfrid desires to secure the support of the most intelligent and progressive Province of the Dominion he will have to follow the Hon. J. P. Whitney's example and stand for clean and honest government.

The left arm is also corrupt and it cannot be very long before Sir Wilfrid will be deprived of that as well. Charges have been made, and are the subject of a libel suit, impugning the personal integrity of Premier Parent. Not only this but greed and lust of power are exemplified in him. Can any reasonable man believe that one individual is capable of honorably and justly discharging the duties of the positions which Premier Parent holds? He is Prime Minister of the Province; the Commissioner of Lands, Mayor of Quebec City, Dominion Government appointee to the board of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company and president of the heavily subsidized Quebec Bridge Company.

This Pooh-bah of Canadian politics appears to be the favored protégé of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. While disclaiming any connection with the revolt in Quebec Sir Wilfrid unquestionably has played his strongest cards to keep Parent in the saddle. That he has failed and that Parent is bound to go seems assured. In any event the "breaking up" process has begun in Quebec and the wisdom of the Conservatives in standing out of the recent contest has been amply justified.

LEADER BORDEN.

Few leaders have displayed such energy and unselfishness as are characteristic of Mr. Borden. We believe that the whole country is glad to see him back in Parliament, and that when the time comes for Mr. Borden to assume a still greater responsibility he will fully justify the high opinion that to-day the people, irrespective of political questions, entertain of his personal merits.

"ANOTHER-FELLOW."

A New York boy seven years old went to a police station and asked the captain to have someone sent home with him to "take a strange kid out of the house." The captain imagined a founding had been left at the boy's home and sent two officers for it. They reported that the boy's mother had presented a little brother to him and that he was jealous. Poor little kid! He must have felt like Ross does just about now.

AVOID THE DANGERS.

It is to be hoped in dealing with this important subject, Parliament will not be governed by either racial or clerical influences. That those influences will be actively at work—that indeed they are now, and long have been at work, may be taken for granted. Yielding to them caused not long ago the downfall of one administration; let the present beware of a similar fate, or, at any rate, of an agitation of which unscrupulous opponents will not be slow to take advantage. By pursuing the road laid down in the confederation act they can avoid these dangers, and rest secure within the safe bounds of the constitution.

THE GROWLER

Abe Savage, the smiling virulent and virtuous editor of the Growler, since his brush with the police, is looking for trouble in another quarter. He is now busily engaged in rubbing it into this G. H. J. "Give it back to me. Don't spare me a bit. Give me the very devil," pleaded Abe this morning. Abe doesn't feel comfortable unless he has somebody down on him. The Growler editor is quite a schemer, but if he wants advertising he'll have to pay the regular rates. To-day's Growler says officially, "The city dads has started to do business. They intend taking the county offer of $11,000 for their interest in Harrison Hall. Now we want you city fathers to use your brains and do business as you should do it. If not well have to ask you to resign and let the ladies of the Home take your places."

V-SITED SCHOOL

No pleasanter hour can be spent in this city than a visit to our public schools. Such was the unanimous opinion of the School Board yesterday afternoon. Notwithstanding the severity of the weather, they found all the rooms comfortably heated and fairly well filled with bright, happy children. The visit was quite unexpected by the staff of the school, but Mr. Plewes received the trustees most cordially and at once began with them a tour of inspection of the various rooms, the older members renewing their acquaintance with the various teachers while the new members were introduced.

After each room was visited in turn and the special work in each examined, the whole school was then marched into the magnificent halls and the pupils were put through several calisthenic exercises, accompanied by the piano. Afterwards a number of songs were charmingly sung by the pupils, including their beautiful morning and evening hymn, compiled by Miss Marion McColl, and some patriotic airs. The 23rd Psalm was recited by the class and the Lord's Prayer was sweetly and reverently chanted.

Mr. Morley, the chairman, then addressed the children with a few suitable remarks and dismissed the school.

THE ROOT OF NEURALGIC HEADACHE.

Is an irritable condition of the nerves caused by cold. Relief comes quickly from Nerviline, the great pain reliever of to-day. "I consider Nerviline a magical remedy for neuralgia," writes Mrs. E. G. Harris, of Baltimore. But I never worry if Nerviline is in the house. A few applications never yet failed to kill the pain. I can also recommend Nerviline for stiffness, rheumatism and muscular pains." In use nearly fifty years; try Nerviline yourself.

THE PROGRAM

Since the death of Miss Frances E. Willard, Feb. 17th, 1898, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union has observed Feb. 17th as Memorial Day. Last year the Ontario W. C. T. U. inaugurated the week of prayer, setting apart the week in which Feb. 17th occurs for special prayer and consecration. As the year went by it was felt that the ideal, "a deeper spirituality in the ranks" was being realized, so the week of prayer was made permanent.

The following is the program in part for the special meetings to be held by the Chatham Union.

Wednesday afternoon a prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Wilson, William St. Mrs. N. Everett in charge.

Thursday afternoon, a mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. Alex. Hall, Baxter St. Mrs. Hall in charge. Papers will be read on the following subjects:—"The mother's responsibility in leading the child to Christ," "The Sabbath in the Home," "The place of the mother in the home," "Obedience."

Friday afternoon, a missionary meeting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Wilson. Mrs. Graham in charge. Papers are to be read on "The liquor and opium traffic in heathen lands," and "W. C. T. U. work in Japan." Miss Ethel Dell will act as pianist, and recitations and music will make up an agreeable program. Visitors cordially invited to the meetings.

ARBITRATION MIX-UP

Judge Houston and R. J. Morrison, two of the arbitrators on the arbitration of the right of way for the opening up of the fifth concession through to the city limits, met Monday to appoint a day to try the Perry and Alex. Dolsen appeals. Judge Bell wasn't present. He had, however, expressed his intention of resigning from the board. M. Wilson, K. C. objected to the two arbitrators, Judge Houston and Mr. Morrison, continuing in the two Dolsen cases, on the ground that Mr. Morrison had written a letter which Mr. Wilson hadn't seen, but which he was led to believe gave intimation that Mr. Morrison had pre-judged the case. Mr. Morrison denied this emphatically and averred that the only letter he had written at all was done with a view to avoid arbitration and the expense of it, pointing out that the parties whose lands were being taken were rather prepared to abandon the arbitration if the Council abandoned putting through the road, as they didn't want it.

Mr. Wilson also objected to the arbitrators fixing the time for trial in the Dolsen cases on the ground that they were functi officio, because they had not met and enlarged, from time to time the hearing of the Dolsen arbitrators according to section 459 of the act.

O. L. Lewis claimed that the provisions of that section were merely directory, and if the board were properly constituted there was no reason why they should not go on, but as Judge Bell had refused to act and had fixed the time of his departure, he agreed with Mr. Wilson that the remaining arbitrators couldn't fix the time till another arbitrator had been appointed instead of Judge Bell, under section 454 of the act.

O. L. Lewis gave notice to the arbitrators and to M. Wilson, K. C. that he would apply under this section of the act for the appointment of another arbitrator by the Judge.

HAVE YOU BEEN IN THIS FIX?

If You Have Kept a Box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets for Reference—They Always Bring Relief.

How often after eating something that did not agree with you have you ransacked the house for something to give you relief. Of course you did not fear any serious results, but the discomfort was such that you were prepared to give anything in reason or out of reason just to feel at rest for a moment.

Do you know that one or two of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets was the very thing you were looking for? If you don't, ask anybody who has ever used them, and they will tell you. Listen to what Mr. R. Japowski, Postmaster at Fesserton, Ont., says: "I have given Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets a fair trial, and can with every confidence recommend them. I generally use only half a tablet after eating, and it never fails to give me relief."

If you would eat what you like, when you like, use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.
