THE MARKET REPORTS.

Improvement in the Live Stock Trade -Wheat is Firmer. Tuesday Evening, March 17.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

The receipts at the St. Lawrence Market to-day were rather light, and trade in the market was quiet. The grain receipts amounted to 500 bushels.

Wheat—White wheat sold firmer at 72½c per bushel. One hundred bushels were on the market.

Oats—The market is slightly easier; 300 bushels sold at 37c per bushel.

Barley—The market is about steady; 100 bushels sold at 48½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—The market is about steady, with a firm feeling. Quotations are $8.25 to $8.75 per cwt fer choice lightweight hogs and $3 to $3.25 for heavles. Butter—Very few farmers did business to-day. Pound rolls are about steady at 18c to 20c, and large are firmer at 16c to 20c per lb.

to 20c per lb.

Eggs—New laid eggs are very plentiful, but are likely to become more so. Quotations have dropped to 16c to 17c per dozen for new laid and to 10c to 12c for held Hay—About 20 loads were on the mar-ket. No. 1 timothy is quoted firmer at $12 to $15 per ton, and mixed or clover steady at $5 to $9. Straw—Is quoted steady at $8 to $9 per ton. One load only was sold.

Toronto Live Stock Markets.

Trade all round showed some slight improvement to-day at the Toronto Cattle Market. The run of offerings, while not large, was heavier than at any time last week, and, owing to a rather increased demand for all kinds, everything was sold fairly early. The feature of the market was a further advance in the price of live hogs. This advance is in sympathy with the high prices of hogs in the United States markets. Cattle prices are about steady at last week's quotations, but in some instances a decidedly firmer feeling is evident. The total run of offerings amounted to 68 cars, including 1,051 cattle, 647 sheep and lambs, 542 hogs and 71 calves.

ings amounted to 68 cars, including 1,08 cattle, 6f sheep and lambs, 5t2 hogs and 71 caives.

Export Cattle—There is more shipping space offering, and the demand for cattie is slightly improved. The offerings to day were heavier, but all was sold, and prices, while not quotably changed, had a firmer feeling. Most of the stuff offering was of common to medium grade, and good cattle are scarce and in excelent demand. Quotations continue about steady, and $4.15 to $4.50 was paid for choice cattle. Medium to good stuff brought $3.40 to $4 per cwt, and in a few cases small lots of extra choice stock brought more than the top quotation. The best lot on the market is about steady and rather stronger, especially for good butcher cattle. This kind are rather scarce, and are in good demand. There was lots of scrubby stuff on the market, and it sold at flucres well within quotations. The good stuff sold at prices which looked slightly higher than those of last week, but quotations are not affected. Ficked stuff sold at prices which looked slightly higher than those of last week, but quotations are not affected. Ficked stuff sold at prices which looked slightly higher than those of last week, but quotations are not affected. Ficked stuff sold at a flucres well within one are coming forward.
