

5. The holder of one share shall be entitled to one vote; and the holder of four or more shares shall be entitled to two votes, and no more. Voting, how regulated.

6. Each shareholder shall pay to the committee all monies that he may hereafter owe to the corporation. Monies due by shareholders to be paid to committee.

7. The committee now appointed shall remain in office until the next annual meeting. Committee—duration of office.

8. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with, alter or affect the rights of her majesty, or any body corporate or private individual. Rights of her majesty, private individuals, &c., not affected.

CHAPTER 58.

An Act to Incorporate the Trustees of Saint Andrew's Church, in Halifax.

[Passed the 31st day of March, A. D. 1853.]

SECTION.

1. Names of present trustees—property to vest in.
2. Elections of trustees. Duration of office of present trustees.
3. Annual meeting—business of.
4. Rules and regulations confirmed.
5. Alteration or revocation of.
6. Real estate to vest in trustees—description of.

SECTION.

7. Pew rents and other monies due trustees, how recoverable.
8. Leasing, mortgaging, &c., real estate.
9. Notice of.
10. Leases—term of limited.
11. Rights of her majesty, individuals, &c., not affected.

Be it enacted by the governor, council, and assembly, as follows :

1. The present trustees of Saint Andrew's Church, namely—Names of present trustees—property to vest in.
the Honorable Alexander Keith, Alexander McLeod, George Little, Thomas Clouston, and David Calder, and their successors in office, to be elected as hereinafter mentioned, are hereby declared a body corporate, by the name of "the trustees of Saint Andrew's church, in Halifax," and shall have full power to purchase, hold, and enjoy, for the use and benefit of the church, as well goods as lands, and to improve and use the same, according to their best discretion, and the true intent and meaning of the donors by whom the same shall have been or may hereafter be given, devised, or bequeathed, to the use and benefit of such church.

2. Annually, on the first Monday in July, at a general meeting of the congregation, five persons, being registered pew-holders in such church, and respectively holding, at the least, one half of a pew therein, shall be elected trustees, in the same manner as is prescribed by the regulations now or hereinafter to be in force for the government of the congregation, with respect to the election of such trustees; provided the number of trustees to be so elected shall always consist of five persons, and also that the present trustees Election of trustees.