On Thursday evening last, Mr. Fred Thompson, on going to bed blew out the light, but failed to notice that the flame was driven down into the oil. Shortly after his wife awoke and found the lamp had exploded and the room was on fire. After a few strenuous minutes the fire was extinguished, though not before considerable damage had been done to carpet, bedding and wearing apparel.

The two-and-a-half-year-old daughter of Clayton Card, a farmer who lives near Verona, was burned to death on Tuesday afternoon in a barn which was destroyed by fire. Three of Mr. Card's children were playing in the barn and it is thought they were lighting matches. Two of them got out when the place became enveloped in flames, but the baby girl was evidently smothered and burned. The barn and its contents including much of the season's crop was destroyed.—The Express.

CAMPBELLFORD.
There is a very large attendance at both schools this year. The public school has an aggregate attendance of nearly 600 pupils and the High School about 135. There have been quite a number of families moved in to town recently and consequently the school population has increased.

We are informed that Mr. Alex. Hume's Yorkshire herd carried off many honors at Ottawa. Mr. Hume was in Halifax most of the time the Ottawa Fair was in progress, his son William, and nephew, Neill Bissounette, of Stirling, taking charge of the herd. Mr. Hume will let the boys go again.

The coming into force of the new Temperance Act made no difference in Campbellford as the retail sale of intoxicants has long been prohibited. There was little excitement anywhere in the province.

The whole of Canada is now practically under prohibitory law. There is still about one-third of Quebec province under license but, apart from this Canada is under prohibition. In this province according to the act a vote will be taken in 1919 after the Province has been three years under the Temperance Act. The people are then know whether the act is a success or not.

Messrs. Jas. Irwin, T. Varcoe and P. J. Sarginson had a good day's fishing last Friday between Allan's Mills and Callaghan's rapids. The party landed 12 fine "lunge" and one big fellow—the unlucky thirteenth—was determined to make Jim Irwin break the game law but Jim, who is always a stickler for living up to the letter of the law, after much difficulty shook the big fish off the hook. The party came home in good spirits and with a clear conscience.—The Herald.

A Pleasant Purgative.—Paralee's Vegetable Pills are so compounded as to operate on both the stomach and the bowels, so that they act along the whole alimentary and excretory passage. They are not drastic in their work, but gently purgative, and the pleasure of taking them is equalled by the gratifying effect they produce. Compounded only of vegetable substances the curative qualities of which were fully tested, they afford

BELLEVILLE TREK WILL TAKE PLACE

The trek to Belleville which was changed because of the visit of the Duke of Connaught, and the unsettled state of the weather, has not been abandoned. Arrangements are being made for the troops to visit Belleville, and this will not doubt be done within the next two weeks. The men enjoyed their visit to Gananoque, and are anxious to have a touch of the hospitality of Belleville. When the trek does take place Belleville people will rise to the occasion, and they will show the British troops what hospitality really means.

Lieuts. Herbert A. Fish and Stanley Nurse have gone overseas with a draft of officers.

C. G. CAREY HAS FALLEN

Mrs. Carey Received Word This Morning Announcing His Death.

The sad news has just been received by Mrs. Carey (formerly Miss Ida Hamby) that her husband, Lieut. Conrad George Carey had been killed in action on Thursday Sept. 21st. She is portrayed with grief and is in a serious condition. Lt. Carey and Miss Hamby were married at Lt.-Col. Hamby's residence on August 4th, 1915, and shortly after he joined a western battalion going to the front quite a while ago. About three months ago a child was born to them. Since his departure Mrs. Carey has been living with her father in this city. The child is doing well.

Prior to enlistment Mr. Carey conducted an insurance business in Calgary. He was twenty-four years of age and his home was in Goderich. He has five brothers at the front, but although the latest to arrive on the firing line, he was the first to fall.

MAJOR ROSCOE VANDERWATER MENTIONED IN DESPACHES

Gallant Sidney Officer Wins Further Signal Honor in the Great Offensive on the Somme.

Major Roscoe Vanderwater, son of Mr. Chas. Vanderwater, Chatterton, and former deputy-reeve of Sidney, has won further distinction in France in the great Somme offensive. Some weeks ago we published a copy of the order from Major Vanderwater's commanding officer recommending him for the Military Cross for gallant conduct on the battlefield.

He has had the further honor of being specially mentioned in the official despatches from the Canadian General Representative at the front.

In his latest report of the momentous operations on the Somme, in which so many of our Canadian boys have laid down their lives, the representative after the preliminary description of some operations leading up to the crisis of the battle goes on to say—

But these activities, important and commendable though they were, were only preparatory to the great offensive that was to follow. The first assault was undertaken by an Eastern Ontario battalion against a salient in the German line some 500 yards in length. This battalion carried out its task in a manner little short of perfection. Sharp at 4:45 one afternoon in broad daylight and under an almost cloudless sky, three companies under command of the trenches on June 27th last and this is the first time his name has appeared in the casualty list. Following is the official message from Ottawa—
