MAYOR HANNA is a hustler. Yesterday he crowded into a few hours an immense amount of work. Arriving in Toount of work. Arriving in Toronto early in the morning, he looked after a considerable amount of private business and then struck for Queen's Park.
He was as busy as a department official, attended three or four meetings in the Parliament buildings, interviewed Hon. Nelson Parliament and departmental heads and so filled up his time that owing to the train he intended taking home at 1.50 p.m. leaving somewhat earlier under another schedule, found the train gone. Not to be beaten, as he wished to attend the civic committee meetings in the evening, he took a taxi and reached York in time to catch the train. And the taxi didn't have to be pinched by the cops either! Mayor Charley arrived home in time for his evening

GIVE WORK TO LOCAL MEN: FOREIGNERS SHIPPED OUT ON REQUEST BY COUNCIL

The local unemployment situation became considerably easier this morning when the Standard Paving Company put quite a number of Belleville workless men to work on permanent operations in East Belleville The company sent a number of the foreigners, who were here, to other points, as the council requested the employment of local men wherever possible.

This morning the company started to lay the asphalt coat on the upper stretch of John Street.
